Geneva Parishes Report 6 Tons In Clothing Drive

Geneva—Six tons of clothing will be shipped to a port of embarkation soon from St. Francis de Sales and St. Stephen's parishes for the needy in Korea.

The shipment will augment similar collections taken up in the various parishes in Rochester Diocese.

An appeal made by Bishop James E. Keeney of Rochester for an emergency clothing collection, opening on Thanksgiving Day, received whole-hearted support in the two local parishes.

St. Francis de Sales collected five tons of clothing and St. Stephen's one ton. Collections included warm winter clothing and shoes, soap, blankets, and other articles.

Sorting, packing, and tying of clothing has been underway in both parishes for the past two weeks.

Rosary and St. Anthony Society of St. Francis de Sales parish under the direction of the Rev. Vincent Collins, and the Rosary Society and Holy Name Society of St. Stephen's parish were in charge of the collections.

Japanese Nun Tokyo (NC) — Sister Mary Susanna Hayashi, who went to the United States to join the Maryknoll Sisters and worked at the Maryknoll mission in Los Angeles for 21 years, has returned to Japan to work with the Maryknoll Sisters in Kyoto.

Korean Program Taken Over By 2 Wounded GIs in Geneva

Geneva — Two wounded G.I.s were unable to make it because of the heavy snowfall, Pvt. Wilsey took over. He was with the 6th regiment, 1st Cavalry. He holds the Combat Infantryman's badge and the occupation of Japanese medal.

Anthony Alvaro and William Beatty were co-chairmen.

Pvt. Frederick Wilsey of Troy who has been in the U. S. Army for 27 months brought first hand information on the Korean battles. A film on the "First Forty Days" of the Korean conflict was shown.

Pvt. Wilsey was one of two men to come here for a program at Civic center.

Since the first two soldiers scheduled on the Holy Name program, Sgt. First Class Raymond H. Sharp of LeRoy and Cpl. Clayton Boughton, Copake Falls.

Holy Redeemer Group Lists Cards Dec. 8

Sacred Heart and Rosary Society of Holy Redeemer Church will hold a card party Friday, Dec. 8, in the school hall at 8 p.m. Admission is $2.75 and lunch will be served.
