

Waverly Gathers Ton of Clothing

Waverly—Approximately one ton of clothing was contributed for the war-torn people of Korea here last week under the sponsorship of St. James Church, according to the Rev. G. Stuart Hogan, pastor.

Twenty-four large cartons, weighing 1800 pieces of clothing, were prepared for shipment by members of the Fatima Club. The Hanson Trucking Company handled the cartons to Binghamton without charge.

Vocations Bought

Paraguay has an average of only one priest for every 5,300 Catholics, it was pointed out during a campaign held here by the Society for Priestly Vocations.

Hornell DCCW Unit Opens 'First Saturday' Series

Hornell—One hundred women from St. Ann's and St. Ignatius Loyola parishes attended a "First Saturday" luncheon sponsored by the Hornell District of the NCCW on Dec. 2 at Hotel Sherwood.

The luncheon was the initial one in a series planned by Hornell District members to pay tribute to the Blessed Virgin under her title, Our Lady of Fatima.

The Rev. John D. Malley, assistant pastor of St. Ann's Church, guest speaker, gave the luncheon address which was illustrated by colored films he took while on a recent Holy Year pilgrimage to Rome, Fatima, Lourdes and other points of religious interest.

FATHER MALLEY, who spent some time at the famed Fatima Shrine, explained to the group the significant devotion Portugal always has had for the Blessed Mother.

Although the Portuguese nation dates from before the time of Christ, it was in the 12th century that the country was formally dedicated to the Mother of God, Father Malley related.

As a further tribute to Our Lady of Fatima the Hornell District will hold luncheons on the first Saturday of each month at which talks of a religious and inspirational nature will be given.

There are still severe demands on the Vatican storehouse for clothing for children in war-ravaged countries, Miss Husong explained. Any new garments for any age child will be acceptable, she said.

Co-chairmen of the clothing drive are Mrs. E. Van Cieg, representing St. Ignatius Loyola Rosary Altar Society and Mrs. Edwin Boyle of the Ladies of Columbus.

Hands Across The Americas

By ANN MOFFATT
Senior play tickets finally have been issued. They may be obtained from any Catholic High student for a paltry 50 cents.

The Patron Drive comes to an end on Dec. 8 the Feast of the Immaculate Conception (incidentally, another holiday for us, which the Socialists have been preparing for by the Papal Tribunal). It has exceeded all our hopes in its success, for a total of twelve hundred dollars was realized.

The English IV Class turned last week to the reading of the immortal Shakespeare's tragedy, "Macbeth." We have a better understanding of the play after reading the captioned phrase and feeling the rhythm of them than if we had read it ourselves.

The members of the varsity basketball team have been announced by Charles Thompson, the coach. The lucky ones are: Mac Curran, Paul Daulty, Dick Halpin, Dick Dunn, Dick Von Henry, Joe Horak, Joe Rogan, Ed Casey, Tommy Reilly, Tommy Tierne, Bob Hulbert, Hugh McFarland, Willy Minch, Bill Updyke, Jimmy Corl. The first game is scheduled Dec. 10 against St. John's Atonement Seminary.

OUR LADY'S Sodality held its second general meeting on Dec. 2 the First Friday. Ann O'Leary, first Vice-president, presided. Since Prefect Bob Shields was absent Motions were made to make up Christmas baskets in each of the homes, to have Senior Socialists have the leading roles in the Christmas pageant to recite the Litany of the Sacred Heart for the remainder of Advent, and to place mite boxes to collect money and prayers for the missions.

The French Club held a meeting Friday. For once it wasn't an eating orgy, listening to French records was the order of the day.

There was still another meeting last week that of the Freshmen English Club. Mary Benedict, chairman, called the meeting to order. Edward Godwin read the minutes of the last meeting and a discussion was held concerning Advent. Participating were Anne McFarland, Philip Shea, Francis O'Connor and James Miltiken.

NCCW convention on Air New York, N.Y. An account of the recent National Council of Catholic Women convention in Cleveland will be beamed to Latin America by the Voice of America. Miss Celina Pinedo Pearson of Buenos Aires, a board member of the International Union of Catholic Women's Leagues and a speaker at the convention, has described it on a recorded interview for the Voice of America.

Excused from school Tokyo — (NC) — The Ministry of Education has announced that students will not be required to attend school functions on Sunday if such attendance would make it impossible for them to fulfill their religious obligations.
