100 Homeless Men To Get Christmas Dinners Free

"Bless us, O Lord, and these thy gifts . . ."

The prayer before meals, recited by more than 100 homeless, transient and poverty-ridden men who walk daily out Joseph's House of Hospitality, will gain additional fervor at 2 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 24.

For on that day the men will seat themselves at tables with more than the usual choice of foodstuffs. It will be the annual Christmas dinner at the House—served the day before Christmas for the reason that the men are expected to be able to feast elsewhere on the holiday itself.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS and music will add a festive tone to the meal, to be served by members of the group which conducts the charitable institution.

Funds for these and the 20,000 other meals served to unfortunate throughout the year are provided through contributions by organizations, priests and friends of the work, to whom the annual Christmas appeal was sent last week.

Funds for the House should be sent to the Rev. George C. Vogt, chaplain, 2048 East Henrietta Rd., East Henrietta, N.Y. Donations of food and clothing may be left at the House, 402 South Ave.
