Aquinas 1950 Grid Team Lauded For Sportsmanship

By ARTHUR F. FARREN

Tribute to Aquinas Institute's undefeated 1950 football team came from many directions at the annual "Victory Dinner" Dec. 14, climaxed by the accolade of Dr. Eddle Anderson, head coach at Holy Cross College:

CONNOLLY HANDED the credit for the successful season to his players, who, he said, "had the true championship spirit, playing as a team and not as individuals."

The Rev. Eugene A. Cullinan, C.S.B., Aquinas principal, termed Connolly "the greatest high school coach in the USA," adding that "we appreciate Mickey not only for his football ability but for the real job he is doing in molding the character of our boys."

Father Cullinan thanked all who had aided the team, friends of Aquinas in the community, members of press and radio staffs, and particularly the members of the Aquinas Men's Club, which sponsors the annual victory fete.

Speaking for the press-radio group, Matt Jackson, sports editor of the Rochester Times-Union, told the crowd that Aquinas football "has done a lot for Rochester sports and sports writers of which we are justly proud."

JIM LEONARD, head coach of Villanova College, declared that a coach "accepts a challenge not only to produce a winning foot-
