

St. Aloysius HNS Bowlers Topped By Harold Jones

Auburn — Harold "Champ" Jones arrived at his old-time form, Sunday, as he rolled games of 180, 202 and 189 for a 571 total to lead the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League. Jones was the spark-plug for the Santa Clara team, who by their four to nothing defeat of Canisius, went into undisputed possession of first place as the second round ended. Frank Stapleton with 517 helped out the Magicians who did not need any magic Sunday as their powerhouse bowling will testify.

Sieve Taby tried to bolster up the morale of Canisius but only he could make any head-way as he was high man for his team with 504.

Jack Friedel of Villanova lived up to his name as "the firing pin" of Villanova's hydrogen-bomb as he rolled 563, the second high of the day to lead his team to a four to nothing victory over Gonzaga. Friedel inspired Paul Bishop to 523 and Father Haffey to 529 to help the victors cause.

Wilson Long proved hot for the Gonzaga team.

Joe Elkovich with 548 and Paul J. Gray with 534 bowled over the Georgetown team as their Holy Cross team took three points. This victory proved costly to Georgetown as they dropped from first to third place.

Vern Binkney with 505 and Jack Madden with 499 were responsible for Georgetown's lone point.

John Terry, the terrier, came to life Sunday as he rolled 548 to lead Notre Dame to a three to one victory over the hard-charging Loyola team. Terry was a great help in placing his team in second place just two points from first. Captain O'Connor helped out.

Bill Costello with 510 was mostly responsible for Loyola's one point.

Joe Elkovich ran off with Terry's Trot for the Christmas Turkey.

The close of the second round showed Georgetown as the hottest team garnering 20 out of 28

Aquinas Graduate Padua H. S. Holds On Wounded List 13 Hour Devotion

Sgt. 1st Class Richard M. Keenan, 22, was reported wounded in Korean action during the past week.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice D. Keenan, 36 Brookdale Ave. received word that Keenan suffered face and side injuries and had been transported from the M. Keenan Hospital in Sasebo, Japan. He telephoned his parents last week assuring them he was recovering satisfactorily.

Sgt. Keenan was graduated from Aquinas Institute in 1947 and he enlisted in the Army on January 13, 1949.

The feast of the Immaculate Conception, Dec. 8, was the day set aside at Padua High School Watkins Glen, for the purpose of honoring the Sacramental King.

The day began at 5 a. m. with a High Mass and Exposition. At 9 a. m. a Solemn High Mass was celebrated by the Rector, Father Claude, O.F.M., with the assistance of Father Emil, O.F.M. and Father Canisius, O.F.M., as Deacon and Sub-Deacon. The student body sang.

During the day, each half hour found two or four boys adorning in the chapel. At 3:30 p. m. a community service was held, during which the Rosary was recited and appropriate hymns sung.

A Holy Hour concluded the Thirteen Hours Devotion. Father Claude preached a sermon in which he asked the boys to place a bouquet of flowers at the throne of their King—flowers of deep faith, humility and love.

Club Entertains Geneva Children

Geneva — Santa Claus enjoys surprising people — especially the children. While 120 youngsters eagerly watched the doorway for his arrival Sunday, he sneaked up the back stairway at the American Club home. It was the annual Christmas party of the AIC and auxiliary for the children of members.

A real holiday spirit prevailed for the event. A large Christmas tree, holly wreaths, and other decorations were used. When Santa arrived at 4 p. m. he presented each child with a gift and a stocking filled with candy.

Prize selections were given by San Veruti and company.

ing entertained the program. Familiar notes of "Jingle Bells," "Here Comes Santa Claus" brought a big reaction from the children who joined the fun.

Anthony Cecere was chairman of the AIC committee with Frank Alvino, Anthony Anas, Joseph Crupi, Frank Cdra via and Ettore D'Vidlo.

Auxiliary committee was under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frank Carvita, with Mrs. Dominick Iocco, Mrs. Carmen Reale, Mrs. Anthony Cecere, Mrs. Joseph Crupi, Miss Antonette Venuti and Miss Josephine Venuti.

Annunciation Church Bell Is Recovered

Church of the Annunciation's 600-pound bell which was stolen Dec. 6 is back in the rectory garage "under lock and key."

The bell was found by Carmen Casserino 18 year old of 126 Bennett Ave. Irondequoit about 9:30 a. m. Monday while he was searching for his horse which had strayed from the family home.

The boy summoned his uncle, Harry Gombetto 211 Lux St. a member of the parish, who identified it as the bell missing from the church yard 1754 Norton St.

The Rev. Francis Cristantelli, pastor, explained the bell had been left in the yard until the roof of the church could be strengthened sufficiently to hold it.

A garage tow truck crew brought the bell from the swampy, wooded tract to the church.
