WHAT'S DOING AT THE DALY'S

By MARY TINLEY DALY

It started as a regulation holiday evening at our house. How could we know that it would end with a new personal respect?

Mom 'Charlestons' Herself To New Parental Respect

By MARY TINLEY DALY

Charleston, Gee, I hope you can do it! I could feel the urgency in her voice and somehow knowing the Charleston seemed very important just then.

discarded shoes altogether as they got going—slowly at first but picking up tempo as they caught onto the technique. Soon they were out—Charlestoning their teacher.

Sister Of Saint Rallies From Illness

Englewood, N. J. (NC)—Mother Agnes, 89, a sister of St. Therese, the Little Flower, who has been gravely ill at the Lileux, France, Carmel of the Carmelite nuns, is reported improving and her condition no longer critical.

Father Dolan said he received word in November that Mother Agnes was ill and had been given only a few days to live by doctors. Early in December, word was received that her condition had improved slightly.

Among Women Twenty Dollars Can Go Far

By MARY LENNON SNYDER

This column could quite appropriately be opened with a famous quotation concerning the distance the little candle throws its light or another one that says we never know how much our way of life sets an example for our neighbors.

When I plan to write about Mrs. Snyder about has to do with an act of charity and the effect it had on several different groups.

Prisoners March In Marian Procession

Cordoba, Argentina (NC)—More than 100 prisoners were allowed to take part in a procession in honor of the Blessed Mother during the Mary's Month celebrations.

IN SENDING the money to Miss Egan, my friend enclosed a short explanatory note regarding the source of the funds.

THE OBVIOUS lack of logic in giving more to those who already have plenty when many in the world have not enough disturbed my friend and her co-workers so they decided to take the money they ordinarily spent on themselves and their own party and give it to the Infant Jesus by bestowing it upon his suffering brothers.
