Bus Firm Offers Plan To Make 4 Church Visits

A bus plan to facilitate visiting the four churches designated in Rochester for gaining the 1951 Holy Year indulgences was announced to pastors in the metropolitan area today.

The four churches named by His Excellency Bishop Kearney for fulfilling the Jubilee requirements are: St. Mary's, Our Lady of Victory and St. Joseph's.

The distance between the Pro-Cathedral and the city churches, the problem of transportation by other means and the parking limitations downtown have presented reasons for the Rochester Transit Corporation to devise an adequate transportation plan.

A method used successfully along the same lines in Cleveland last year was studied.

WITH POSSIBILITY of visits to the four churches being made on Sunday afternoon when equipment will be available, the Transit Company through Vice-President William A. Laing has arranged a chartered bus plan.

The plan calls for quotation of a special low price of $15.40 per bus to parish groups. With 44 passengers for each bus, this amounts to a charge of $35 each for the entire trip from a home parish to each of the four churches and return.

This applies to all churches in the City of Rochester and the immediate suburban area.

The Transit Company will provide the best in personnel and equipment in keeping with the spiritual tenor of the trip, Laing said.

Joseph W. Hauser of the Transportation Department will be in personal charge and make all necessary arrangements for the trips. He may be reached at L-6042 835. Equipment will be allocated exactly in the order in which reservations are made.

Jesus of Nazareth Is Passing By

To you, who have served as faithful and thoughtful Ladies of Charity, these words have a special meaning, an echo of Comfort, and an assurance of "Well Done". But to every Catholic Woman who has refused to consider an affiliation with the Ladies of Charity, for selfish reasons, I mean, and for each one, who is wavering in an area of indecision, this message has a different meaning, tinged with regret.

His face is sad, as He listens to the same old trite excuse: "I am too busy!" My husband doesn't want me to go out without him. After a day in the office, I need relaxation.

"You have to work if you are a Lady of Charity. I prefer clubs that have a lot of social activities."

The blind beggar, who cried out to our Lord and Saviour as "He was passing by," did not heed the quieting commands of the bystanders. And so what of you, and your little tempters?

ARE YOU listening and following those whispered suggestions. Last Sunday's sermon included a reminder that the devil tempts us in those little pet weak spots, which are easy prey for him. (Incidentally, I checked on that statement, throughout the usual difficulties of a Monday in our office, and found that he was so right.)

Yes, I am afraid that some of you are listening and unlike the beggar, you will fall into the clever traps set for you by skillful Satanic fingers. My condolences to you because you will be the loser. Jesus of Nazareth is passing by and His Sacred Hands are outstretched, offering you special graces and many spiritual gifts.

Don't I beg of you, miss the messages from our Divine Saviour and His Blessed Mother. Several years ago, during a Ladies of Charity Retreat, a tall, perfectly Franciscan, whose perfect enunciation and startlingly beautiful figures of speech were matched by his appealing sincerity and the deep actuality of his glorious faith, presented a fulfillment of the promises made by affiliates with the Ladies of Charity.

He suggested that we might cease being so greatly sorry for ourselves because of imaginary grievances, if we remembered that God has not singled out a chosen few to suffer in this vale of tears, but rather that a cross is the privilege of the young and the old, the rich and the poor, the humble and the arrogant.

SUCH CROSSES are not excuses to be used, when some little service is asked of you, as is true of the Ladies of Charity. Certainly, I admit that days come that are so filled with discouragement, heartaches, and soul-tearing experiences, that we live from hour to hour, some times from minute to minute, accepting the scourging hurts of God's will.

Biased, perhaps, I am - but there is something in the peace and comfort of an Affiliation Ceremony which brings a soul close to the feet of our lovely Lady, very near to the Sacred Heart of Her Divine Son and makes her conscious of the satisfaction of the practice of the Charity of Christ.

Peace, lasting, permanent and the welfare of our dear ones now or soon to be in the armed forces, personal needs, material and spiritual, are a big order—but not too much for "Jesus of Nazareth passing by."

Will you then, dear Ladies of Charity and you Catholic women who will affiliate at the annual

Jurist Scores Placing Infants In Pre-Schools

Iowa City, Ia. - (RNS) - District Judge James P. Gaitney scored as "an indication of the present-day regrettable decline in family life" the large number of children below kindergarten age who are placed in play schools or "pre-schools."

The Catholic jurist made the statement as part of a ruling handed down in a lawsuit here in which neighbors sought to halt the operation of a play school in a private Iowa City residential area.

"THE SCHOOL which these defendants are operating is perhaps a modern necessity," he said, "but to the court it is an indication of the present-day regrettable decline in family life. This decline is due largely to the high standards of living and because of economic reasons."

"A child's place in its tenderest years is in the home with its parents, brothers and sisters. The truly regal throne of the mother is in the home with her family, not in the office, in the factory, or classroom."

"WITHOUT THE mother in the home, its stability is weakened, the entire family and society suffers."

While the court deplors and recognizes the danger to the American home by the present modern and socialistic trends with respect to education and care of children of tender years outside of the home, yet it is not unmindful of the forced economic—and in a few cases social—reasons which demand a pre-school such as is involved here."
