'Cheaper By Dozen' Comedy Set Two Nights At Mercy

"Cheaper by the Dozen," a three-act comedy, will be presented in Mercy High School Auditorium on Sunday, Feb. 4 and Monday, Feb. 5 at 8:30 p.m. It is the story of the ups and downs of the Gilbreth family of Mont Clair, New Jersey in the early 20's.

The purpose of the school play is to raise money for the school's gift of vestments to the new chapel. The play was originally planned for one performance but the immediate demand for more tickets necessitated the Sunday showing.

Junior, Ellen Wilson, has earned the role of "Mrs. Gilbreth," an understanding, lovable mother; while Gene Eckert, a familiar figure on Mercy's stage and Aquinas graduate, will play "Mr. Gilbreth."

Their children, twelve in number, range from seventeen years downward. Aquinas senior, Tom Hartzell, will portray Frank, the oldest boy and Junior, Sally Healy will portray Anne, a typical teen of the times.

The other Gilbreth daughters are played by Senior, Pat Murnighan and Juniors, Mary Kay Nally and Kay O'Hara. The Gilbreth boys will be played by Dick Carr, Kevin Mahoney, Tom Noonan and Ted Case, all Aquinas students. The younger children will be played by David and Michael O'Brien, Jane, the baby, does not appear in the play.

Soph. Mary Ann Ennis will play Mrs. Fitzgerald, the family cook while Senior, Mary Alice Janoski will play the school teacher, Miss Brill. Others in the play are Larry, a special friend of Anne's, cheerleader, and family doctor played by Dick Knox, Dick Cappon and Bob Hans, respectively.
