'Giants' Cage Team Cited As School League Leaders

By HOWARD F. MEATH
CVO Program Director

Basketball teams in our leagues promoting the Catholic Youth movement will be discussed in this space today and during the coming weeks.

Studying schedules, rosters and game results, it seems fitting to spotlight Father Patrick Moffatt and his St. Francis Xavier "Giants."

This team under the watchful eye of Father Moffatt has encountered seven opponents and has defeated seven giving it an undisputed claim to first place in the Eastern Division.

This is apparently nothing new for these boys, a study of past performances shows. This team walked away with division honors in last year's league.

The "Giants" as a title, is not of the team's choosing but was given the boys by coaches and players from a rival team were overheard the other afternoon saying, one to the other, "It isn't fair, these fellows were born with stiffs for legs."

We all know, however, that it isn't just height that makes the team. There must be "know how" team spirit, team play.

Five high averages are held by the following: T. Wentz, 18.5; H. Utter, 18.3; J. Roth, 18.2; B. Bira, 18.1 and S. Eckert, 18.1.

Other 200 games and high totals were: O. Schindler, 235; G. Gallagher, 210; 204; 501; S. Donoghue, 206; 578; H. Utter, 235; 576; B. Hoffman, 215; 571; S. Switzer, 202; 570; Dulhoy, 206; W. Koeler, 235; E. Knater, 219; Valtonis, 210; R. Seamon, 222; Goodlein, 206.

Role In Civil Defense Set For Geneva Girl Scouts

Geneva - With growing plans for civil defense, girl scouts of Geneva are doing their share in the local program. Thirty-two girls from Troop 2 of De Sales High school and Troop 21, First Presbyterian church, are combining their efforts in the hospital aide program in Geneva General hospital.

The scouts work under the senior program and have their choice of being program aides or meals and read and entertain child patients.

Senior scouts wear uniforms of green garradine skirts and white poplin blouses with the scout trefoil emblem embroidered on them. Uniforms are left at the hospital since the scouts are not allowed to wear them outside because of risk of carrying germs.

Troop 2, De Sales High school, is led by Mrs. Harry Anderson, and Mrs. Fred Laun, assistant leader. It meets every other Thursday in De Sales High school.

Troop members are: Maureen McCusker, Virginia Bennett, Connie Gollitz, Mary Dugan, Carolyn Dimnick, Dominica Galgano, Patricia Iannopolo, Barbara Lee, Rita Lynch, Mary Jane McHale, Carolyn Reeder, Bernadette Roach, Claire Seymour, Nancy Lee Talbert and Martha Pasqua.

Many favorable comments have been heard on the word of the young scouts, their leaders report. They have been praised for their sunny attitude, willingness and capability.

St. Bona Alumni To Honor Murray
Ken Murray, St. Bonaventure graduate and now starring with the Baltimore "Bullets" in the National Basketball Association will be honored by the Rochester St. Bonaventure Alumni Association on Tuesday, Feb. 20 at the Sports Arena.

Chairman Thomas J. Byrne announced today that the alumni will buy a block of tickets and "plan on a good turnout."

Leo Sullivan, Joe Kennedy and "Rip" Riley, players of the 1926-1930 era will make a presentation at halftime to Murray. These alumni along with "Yanno" McNally and Frank Walsh, both now dead, put St. Bonaventure on the "basketball map," according to Byrne.

Participating also in the ceremony will be another outstanding former basketball star at St. Bona's, Sammy Urzetta, national amateur golf champion.
