200 Nocturnal Members Hear Bishop At Annual Breakfast

Members of the Nocturnal Adoration Society were likened to the especially privileged disciples of Christ, Peter, James and John, who were chosen to be present at the Transfiguration, by His Excellency Bishop Kearney speaking at the Society's Annual Communion breakfast, in Powers Hotel on Passion Sunday.

The Bishop said the Nocturnal men were like those particular disciples who were selected by Jesus to go with Him into the Garden of Gethsemane, there to watch and pray as darkness was beginning to cover the earth.

Two hundred members attended the breakfast following Mass celebrated by the Bishop in St. Patrick's Church where the monthly all-night vigils are held throughout the year.

Announcement was made that the traditional Thursday evening Hour of Adoration, will, this year, be held at Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral at 7:30 p.m. when Bishop Kearney will preside. This special Holy Hour is held annually by the Society accompanied by Bishop Kearney and the Rev. Leo C. Mooney, Society's Spiritual Director in commemoration of the institution of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

President David Gales was toastmaster at the Breakfast. Mathias J. Kuchel, vice president, was chairman.

President Gales contrasted the Nocturnal Society's activity with groups whose ideals are at least indifferent to the rampant evils of the age, irreligion, immorality, hypocrisy and deceit.

He urged a more active participation in, and missionary zeal for, this particular phase of Catholic action, "because we need so much the leavening qualities as supplied through the grace and spiritual values that emanate from our acts of adoration, our devotion to and love of Christ in the Eucharist."

Executive Secretary Joseph W. Benn reported an average of 400 hours each month during the year 1950 spent by members before the Blessed Sacrament at St. Patrick's at the successive vigils throughout the hours from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. on the last Saturday night of each month.

At the Mass, the Bishop said the rise or decline of nations down through the centuries has been in direct proportion to the increase or decrease in devotion to the Blessed Sacrament in those nations.

The Bishop spoke on the influence exerted by Pope Pius X whose cause for beatification is being advanced and who is known as "The Pope of the Eucharist," in increasing devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

Area Boys Due In N. D. Band

Three boys from Rochester will be among the 55 musicians in the University of Notre Dame Band slated to play two concerts in Columbus Civic Center Rochester on Sunday, April 1 according to General Chairman Joseph P. Flynn.

The three will be Peter Skerrett of the percussion group, William Cushman, bassoon player and Carl Kohls, clarinetist. Among soloists will be Charles Hof of Jerome, Idaho, singer and William Missimer, San Marino, Calif., pianist.

Leo Hope, conductor, said the band will play classical, contemporary and novelty numbers.

The concert is being sponsored by Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus for its charity fund.

Assisting Chairman Flynn on the committee are: Grand Knight Raymond L. Nary and District Deputy John J. Kinney, co-chairmen; Leo F. Rombaut, past grand knight; C. Norbert Baglin, State Warden Rocco F. Natalie and Joseph Magauri.

Raymond J. Hasenauer, director of the University of Rochester and Aquinas Institute Band is handling arrangements for the band itself.

Ticket reservations are being made at the K. of C. office, second floor, Columbus Civic Center and at Tucker's Catholic Shop, 300 Main St. East.
