AMONG WOMEN Crux of The Question

By MARY LENNON SNYDER

A letter from the Rochester Fourth Degree, Knights of Columbus reached me too late for me to urge that women's organizations support efforts to have all places of business closed during the Three Hours of Good Friday.

NEED HELP? Come to the Novena service of St. Anthony and St. Jude Thaddeus every Tuesday at 12:15 and 3:15.

centers around the need to educate the public to stay away from the stores; then the question of closing will take care of itself.

A letter I recently received from Mrs. Frank L. Shaughnessy, President of the D.C.C.W. also makes this point: "We have urged all Rochester Deaneery women to observe the no shopping idea for the Three Hours on Good Friday and have asked that everyone possible attend the Three Hour Services."

"However, as I stood waiting for a bus at 11:50 a.m. on last Good Friday on my way to St. Mary's the people that were rushing in and out of Sibley's made me realize that there is a lot of education needed if big business is to go along with us in this matter."

"If between now and Good Friday each one of us would interest at least two non-Catholics (I can't imagine having to do more than remind Catholics) in staying away from places of business during the Three Hours, we might demonstrate the truth of an old adage brought up to date — the hand that rocks the cradle also makes the cast registers ring."

Woman Receives Cenacle Order Habit His Excellency, the Most Reverend James E. Kearney, officiated at the Ceremony of Clothing at the Cenacle Novitiate House, Lake Ronkonkoma, Long Island, for Miss Margaret Richardson of Rochester.

The women took over the Thomas More Lecture Forum Tuesday evening at the Sheraton Hotel when Gretta Palmer, lecturer, columnist and author told the gathering "What's Right with Women," in the seventh lecture of the series.

"Women are a great problem to bachelors," the speaker said. They make as much money as the men, and can't cook. The result is the problem arising when they try to live on one's salary when they've been accustomed to double the amount."

Make Geneva Visit Gretta Palmer, one of Monignor Fulton J. Sheen's famous converts, has written on medical research, sociology, Hollywood, psychiatry, marriage, fashions and other topics.
