Nazareth Hall Boys Heard In Annual Oratorical Test

The Most Rev. James E. Kearney Gold Medal for first place in the annual Nazareth Hall oratorical contest was won by John L. O'Connor, on March 9 at the school. Most Rev. John Francis O'Hern Memorial Medal was awarded to David R. Bertsch. Presentation was made by Louis A. Langle, president, Rochester Chamber of Commerce and an alumnus of Nazareth Hall. Langle took the occasion to pay tribute to the academy and to the Sisters of St. Joseph who train the boys there. AMERICAN HISTORY topics were discussed by five contestants and decision on winners followed long deliberation by the judges. Winners were determined by points. Judges were the Rev. Joseph O'Reilly, C.S.B., Aquinas Institute; the Rev. John F. Cavanaugh, professor of eloquence, St. Andrew's Seminary and Thomas H. O'Connor, news editor of the Courier Journal, no relation to the winner. Speakers and their topics were: Robert R. Lane, "American Way of Life"; O'Connor, "Valley Forge"; Lawrence J. Emond, "Village of Littleton"; Francis H. Allenza, "Deed to Freedom," and Bertsch, "Bill of Rights." Each contestant was presented with a check for $5 by Grand Knight Raymond L. Nary of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus which sponsors the Catholic Speakers Bureau. Relief To Berlin Berlin — (NC) — Vatican and American Catholic charities to the Diocese of Berlin totaled approximately half a million dollars during 1949 and 1950.

Third Order of St. Francis

Prospective candidates for membership in the Third Order of St. Francis will this spring have the "unusual and happy privilege" of being received on Easter Sunday on which day the March meeting will take place at St. Patrick's Church, 434 Plymouth Ave. N. at 3:30 o'clock. Anyone who is interested in the Order will be welcome at any of the meetings which occur on the fourth Sunday of every month except July and August. In preparation for the great Paschal solemnity, Father Raymond, O.F.M. urges Tertiaris to offer all their annoyances, inconveniences and small daily crosses in union with Christ. "May the dear Saviour for the sake of the indignities heaped upon Him in his condemnation, teach you to live the habit of the Third Order of penance; namely a life of forebearance with others detachment from what the world has to offer and above all patience and charity amid persecution. This is the royal road to glory and the way to promote the salvation of others. Remember the unjust persecution and condemnation of Our Lord, and the next time you suffer the like, bear it as He did, that you may be made worthy of your spiritual Father, St. Francis."
