

There's only one thing to do about a hurricane

Insurance you can put out a fire, but you can't put out a hurricane

The only thing to do is to be sure you have plenty of windstorm insurance. Then just wait for the thing out and don't worry

Surfscapers, cyclones and tornadoes need to confine themselves to certain areas. But now they roam anywhere, and you may blow your property to smithereens or smash it to bits. A $4,000... ANY

An Extended Coverage endorsement added to your fire policy, will insure you against loss by windstorm and other perils as well.

St. Francis, Mt. Carmel Teams Win In CYA Leagues

The curtain has fallen on another basketball season for the Parochial School Leagues. Lots of basketball has been played, new acquaintances made and there have been new experiences for grammar school as well as high school boys.

At the close of the regular season, St. Lucy's won the top honors in the Western Division while St. Francis Xavier won the honors in the Eastern Division.

Finals were St. Francis Xavier over St. Monica's in the Grammar School League and St. Carmel over St. Monica's in the High School league.

Final games of the tournament were played Sunday afternoon at the C.Y.A. gym where a good sized cheering section was on hand to give the home teams a boost.

In the Grammar School game, St. Monica's team was put to the test when St. Francis Xavier "Glants" began to hit for points.

St. Monica's boys just couldn't check the tall fellow and Galusha went ahead to pile up a total of 17 points. Helfferer of St. Monica's was top man for his team with 10 points.

In the High School finals, St. Monica's led Mt. Carmel's aggregation until the last quarter. The margin wasn't great but it made Mt. Carmel's boys hustle.

ALL THAT REMAINS of the season now is the presentation of awards by His Excellency Bishop Kearney at a Father and Sons banquet to be held April 4 at 8:30

Cardinal Applies Request To School New York (NC) His Eminence Francis Cardinal Spellman, Archbishop of New York, has been bequeathed the sum of $150,000 in the will of the late Dr. Albert A. Berg to be used for whatever charitable educational or religious purposes the prelate deems advisable.

Cardinal Spellman has decided to use the income of the fund, to be known as the Moritz and Josephine Berg Memorial Fund, to help defray operational costs of the Archbishop Stepinac High School at White Plains, N. Y., which, in its third year, has an enrollment of 1,000 students and expects 1,380 next year.

Jack Friedel Bowls 583 To Lead St. Aloysius League

Auburn - Jack Friedel was in good form Sunday, as he rolled games of 222, 187 and 164 for a 583 total, the high for the day in the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League.

Friedel proved an inspiration to Captain Ralph Casbarro, who finished just three pins behind Friedel for the second high total of the day, rolling games of 199, 224 and 157 for a 580 total.

JOHN TERRY looked like "Terrible" Terry of old as he put on a one-man gang act in the third game, getting six strikes in a row to salvage one point for Notre Dame and got himself a 550 total. Frank Geno was next best for Notre Dame with 506.

Bill Tarby with 503 led the Canisius team to a four to nothing victory over Georgetown. Jones inspired Eddie Russell to 534 and Frank Stapleton to 514 which helped the Magicians to widen their first place lead.

'Gypsy Troubador' Slated By Holy Family Cast Of 30

The Gypsy Troubadour, a romantic operetta, will be staged by Holy Family Theatre in the school auditorium, Jay St. on Apr. 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20 with a matinee on Sunday April 15. The book and lyrics are by EFA Preston and the music by Don Wilson.

For the past several months a crew of men have been working on the stage settings and to date, this production has cost about $350. Martha Schuey and Gertrude Allman combined their talents in producing a galaxy of colorful costumes for the cast of 30 people.

Robert Bruce Kuchman, dance instructor for all the past performances, has created some new and thrilling dances especially for this production.

BRELIANT VOCAL arrangements are being taught by Vernon McArdie, organist of Holy Family Church. Rita Beachner and Angela Daley combine their efforts in assuming the instrumental teachings in accompanying the dances and musical numbers.

Frank Treu is credited with the unusual art designing on stage and on the advertising signs. New talent among the neighborhood is featured in this gigantic musical production, a "most colossal spectacle ever attempted on any amateur stage."

Highlighting the many extras to be presented is the number "Black Magic" done entirely in black light, a favorite type of entertainment introduced in this parish by the Rev. E. Charles Bauer, production adviser and director.

Lawrence Kueher and Anne DiLenola head the cast of 30, with Helen Schramel, Anthony Villanova, Santa Clara, and Notre Dame.
