Aquinas 5 Ends 4th In Tourney

After an impressive victory over Dean Academy of Franklin, Mass., 47-42, Aquinas Institute team of Rochester ended its fourth place in the Eastern States scholastic basketball tournament at Glens Falls.

Don Hollender set the scoring pace in the Dean Academy game with 19 points. He again led both teams with 23 tattles in Aquinas versus St. Thomas More Catholic High of Philadelphia which ended 76-58 and a victory for the St. Thomas More five.

In a consolation game with Augusta Military Academy of Fort Belknap, Va., the Rochester team was on the short end of a 65-57 score and took fourth place. Lee Riley of Aquinas topped his team with 15 points.

The Rochester team was in charge of Coach Basil Marella.

Friedel's 588 Score Leads St. Aloysius HN Bowlers

Auburn — Jack Friedel continues his superb bowling, getting games of 226, 212 and 150 for a 588 total to be high man for the day in the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League. But despite Friedel's great bowling Villanova was able to gain only an even break with the hard-fighting Loyola team who won the first and third games. Paul Bishop helped out the Villanova team.

Captain Bill Bishop came through with his best game of the season, 203 to lead his Loyola team to their even break with Villanova. Joe Spoto was a great help.

Bill Tarby who is out rolling his famous father came through with games of 194, 223 and 146 for a 563 total, the second high for the day. Tarby led the Canisius team to a three to one victory over powerhouse Georgetown.

Johny Bodnar with 555 led the Gonzaga team to a four to nothing victory over Notre Dame. Charlie Rice's 170 in the first game was a help with Sam Casbarro helping out in the three games getting a 480 total, his highest of the year and only three pins back of his famous brother.

Captain Frank O'Connor was best for Notre Dame with Frank Geno a close second.

Harold "Champ" Jones with 524 led the Santa Clara Magicians to a three to one victory over Holy Cross to help strengthen their first place margin. Joe Stapleton was a great help in the second and third games coming up with 509.

Joe Elkovitch, who was most responsible for the Crusaders' lone point with his 191 in the first game had difficulty in the second game which held his total to 502.

39 Grammar, High School Teams Ready For 1st Diocesanwide Basketball Tournament

Sports enthusiasts will be given a basketball treat this weekend (Apr. 7-8) when 39 teams from 11 communities in the diocese battle in the first annual Diocesan Basketball Tournament in Rochester.

Sponsored by the Columbus Youth Association, the tourney lists 23 teams in the high school age group and 16 in the grammar group.

Trophies, to be presented at 8 p.m. Sunday following final games in St. Monica's Hall, have been donated by the CYA, Rochester Council Knights of Columbus, Monroe County Catholic War Veterans, Rochester Convention and Publicity Bureau and the Hannan Sporting Goods Store.

Howard Meath, CYA physical director, is chairman of the tournament committee, assisted by Frank Norton, James Marcell, Frank Brennan, Edward Tighe, William Knaut and Peter DuPre. Referees are in charge of Tom Eganman.

Players on all teams will be representing their parishes. Boys who played on high school teams during the 1950-51 season, however, are ineligible. Competing will be teams from the following parishes:
