

St. Joseph Unit Slates Dinner

Administrators of the Holy Family of St. Joseph's Church will hold their annual Spring Dinner Sunday, Apr. 22 at 5 p.m. in the Colony Restaurant.

Honorary chairman of the dinner is Louise K. Brown, President of the Archconfraternity.

General chairman has been appointed Mrs. L. Mayer, Catherine Ferrel, Mary G. Conroy, Mary Hyatt, and others.

So, day after day the Head of the House has shelled out his small change to raise the kindergarten thermometer.

THINK, ONE evening at dinner, Ginny was simply burling with news. Between grace and the general attacking of dinner, Ginny broke her news: "I pushed up the thermometer today, up to this much. Thumb and forefinger were wide apart. That'll get lots of shoes and socks for the little kids on the other side of the river."

"With that quarter I gave you this morning?" the Head of the House asked in surprise.

"But they have to pay it back too. We tried to explain the whole business in words of one syllable. And if they can't pay it back they have to go to jail and work it out."

NECKT DAY Ginny began her explanation. "Cleaning Mary's room is fun," she called downstairs.

When we went up for inspection we discovered the reason. Ginny had taken the broom and swept everything that was out of place under Mary's bed and carefully pulled the spread down to the floor.

In her naivete she thought this was an original trick, but we'd exposed that one many times before, and knew how to deal with it — with just a couple of swipes with the broom.

"I got all the stuff away," she said wearily. "And I'm glad the money went to the little kids because the green — but money is sure hard to get when you have to WORK for it!"

WHAT'S DOING AT THE DALYS'

"Ginny Runs Afoot the Law"

By MARY TINLEY DALY

One of the commandments that never has bothered us particularly is the seventh—never having had access to Chase National.

Then we got tangled up in it by means of the Bishop's Fund—of all things. We're all for the Bishop's Fund, of course, and everybody made a reasonable contribution—but that wasn't enough for five-year-old Ginny.

"You had girl!" she stormed. "You broke into my bank and took my money I was saving for camp. Why, that's stealing."

"It's not," Ginny maintained. "It's for the Bishop's Fund."

"You shouldn't take what belongs to other people, Ginny," the Head of the House explained.

"Not even for a good cause like the Bishop's Fund," Mary nodded agreement. "And you have to pay it back."

Ginny began to cry. "But I haven't any money and the little kids need it more'n you did."

"Even so, Ginny," we told her, "that wasn't your money to give. It was Mary's. And since you haven't any money you'll have to work to earn the money and get it back. You'll have to clean Mary's room every day for a week!"

Usually Ginny pays no attention to the grown-up talk unless she has a special idea. "When the little kids take money it's stealing and when men take it they call it a 'deal'—don't they?"

"But they have to pay it back too. We tried to explain the whole business in words of one syllable. And if they can't pay it back they have to go to jail and work it out."

"Glad I can work mine out without going to jail," Ginny said and wet a wit eraser. In 2ms and went on with her dinner.

Among Women Electing Your Officers

Spring means many things to many people, but to the majority of organizations it means appointment of nominating committees and election of officers.

The first step in election of officers is the preparation of a slate of candidates. This may be done by open nominations from the floor.
