

Baroness De Hueck Slated For Talk By Kilmer Club

Baroness Catherine De Hueck of New York will be guest speaker at the fifth annual Communion Breakfast of the Joyce Kilmer Club of Blessed Sacrament Church, Sunday May 6 at the Sheraton Hotel.

During the year, the breakfast will be open to the public by invitation of the members of the club. The announcement will be made in the next issue of the club's newsletter.

Catherine De Hueck is famed as the founder of Friendship House in New York and is a recognized authority on Communism and international affairs. Her personal interest during the revolution in Russia and her all out support of the Negro cause in Harlem give her the background for a successful address.

HEATED AS ONE of the four best Catholic women speakers in America today, she is constantly referred to as the guiding light in the lay apostolate both here and in Canada.

Although she had virtually stopped lecturing, she is making a special trip to Rochester for this talk.

Members of the Joyce Kilmer Club will receive Communion at the 8 a. m. Mass and the breakfast will follow at 9:30 a. m. Children's Court Judge Thomas J. Meagher is general chairman. Ticket committee is headed by Al Walk and Edith Miller.

Tickets will be available at Trinity's and at Blessed Sacrament Rectory.
