

Day Camp Program Planned By CYA To Open July 2nd

By HOWARD F. BHATH
CYA Program Director

The Columbus Youth Association is now focusing its attention on the CYA Summer Day Camp program and plans to open the program in July. Plans for the camp include a variety of activities and a beautiful lake for day camp.

A special feature of day camp will be of interest to parents as well as the youngsters.

DAY CAMPING is a comprehensive program in education, recreation and physical education. It is held in a large part of day in the park and surrounding areas of interest.

The beautiful school room is used for a continuation of the program.

Individual education in outdoor activity, textbooks are exchanged for experiences encountered on hikes, a field day, campfires, in games and teaching comes from capable and experienced leaders. Day campers experience the same activities that the boys and girls in boarding camps do with the exception of sleeping at home. Among activities offered are hiking, campfires, cookouts, swimming, crafts, visits to parks and industrial plants and at various times during the camp, an occasional overnight hike.

Present plans call for a seven-week program. Our age groups are both boys and girls will be in the neighborhood of $2.50 per week. It is planned to start the Day Camp July 2 and finish Aug. 17. Final plans will be announced here next week.

THE CYA PAROCHIAL Softball League will get underway this evening Tuesday afternoon. The League has been held up by heavy rains and inclement weather.

'TROUBLE' IN THE KITCHEN

Family Trouble Theme Set In Nazareth SRO Musical

A modern American family beset by typically modern American troubles is the theme of this year's Nazareth College S.R.O. original musical production.

The show to be given three performances at the College on East Ave. with a matinee on Sunday, April 29 and evening performances on April 30 and May 1 was written and is directed by Joan Reichart and Elizabeth Hayes.

THE FAMILY told about in the show, consists of the parents and five daughters, each of whom has a temperament completely different from the others, "which, of course," the authors say, "is not completely conducive to family harmony."

And to complicate matters there is a meddling aunt (every family has one) who in the end has the table turned on her. We also have an element of suspense in the person of a friend of the family whose mystery is solved in the final act.

Mary Lou Abel is cast as the mother of the family and the five daughters are portrayed by Joan Reichart, Dorothy Fisher, Mary Ann Hoffman, Joan Kinsey, and Jeanette Kuhn.

McDonald Marks 10th Year As Patrolman

Geneva—Ten years on the Geneva Police Force was commemorated by Patrolman Michael McDonald on April 21. He is a relative of the late Patrolman Aeneas McDonald who was slain here more than 25 years ago in performance of his duty.

Officer McDonald was appointed a special patrolman Apr. 21, 1941. On Nov. 19 that year he received his appointment as a regular with the department.

He was born Apr. 17, 1912 at Castlebar, County Mayo, Ireland. He came to America after graduating from high school in Ireland in 1930. He worked in Boston for a year and a half and then came to Geneva to make his home.

"Mike" was married in September of 1943 to a Geneva girl, Miss Margaret Taney. They have two children, Mary and Margaret Ann, 3.
