Elmira Newspaper Feature Puts Spotlight On Religion's Progress In Reformatory

The importance of religious influence in a prisoner's rehabilitation was demonstrated by Charles Queenan in a feature article in the Elmira Sunday Telegram of April 22 in which he told of the imprint of Father Lane's chaplaincy on the men who served "on the Hill."

THE ST. DON BOSCO chapel, situated in the very heart of the big, sprawling reformatory, stands in mute testimony to the tremendous work Father Lane has done. He solicited most of the funds for the beautiful chapel, first Catholic chapel ever built in a similar penal institution. It was dedicated in 1938.

British Hierarchy Hits Birth Control

London — (RNS) — The Catholic Hierarchy of England and Wales has issued a statement condemning proposals of the Royal Commission on Population calling for the dissemination of birth control information by National Health doctors and clinics.

British Hierarchy Hits Birth Control

Proposals made by the Commission, the Bishops declared, "make the family a pawn in population planning and involve an assault on large families. They amount to an injustice to Catholic doctors obliged in conscience to refuse to give instruction in artificial contraception."
