Pleas Increase For Public School Religion Courses

(Continued from Page 1) A sub-committee that such courses need not violate the principle of Church-State separation... This means that the nation's highest tribunal, which has already declared released-time classes on public school property unconstitutional, must now rule on the much broader issue of religion in any form barred from the school? ANOTHER ISSUE has arisen in Minnesota which also may come before the U.S. Supreme Court for final decision.

Father Davie Leads Rosary At Auburn Mary's Day Rite

Auburn — May 10 was Mary's Day at Holy Family School, Auburn. The high school and grammar school joined efforts in honoring Mary, the Mother of God, and in making reparation to her Divine Son.

Many of the students began this Marian Day with Mass and Communion. Throughout the day a spirit of silence was maintained. Appropriate signs, encouraging silence and prayer, were posted through the school building.

THE HIGHLIGHT and climax of the day was reached at 3:00 p.m. Singing the "Lourdes Hymn," the students walked in procession from the school to a shrine of the Blessed Mother erected behind the Church, where the first grader, Suzanne Rogers, crowned Our Lady.

Rev. William E. Davie, Principal of Holy Family High School led the students in the recitation of the Rosary.

Family Holy Hour Set In 4 Churches
