By the ministry of His Priests, Christ who as parents or superiors or as profesestinues the charge of bread and wine into His Body and Blood. This is a power reserved by Christ for Priests alone. The but only for the Priest do they have that reverence and respect that belongs to one who has been empowered by Christ to continue the Church the tweive Apostles. To these Christ gave this power in the words of De this in memory of me." With these words they received immediately the power to change bread and wine into the Bedy and Blood of Christ. Christ had just made this change Of Christ had just made this change Christ how commanded them to make this change and gave them Blood.

Solia Presbyterial Saturday of this week their priestly power over His Body and Blood.

Bolla Presbyterial In these two Latin words St. Thomas Aquinas in one of the Corpes Christi hymns specifies where Christias placed this power. To Priests only, through the Secrement of Holy Orders the server gives to the original twelve Priests-Section has been handed down in the Caured In every age, in every country, God the stilled young men to receive priestly severs through the imposition of hands in the Secrement of Holy Orders. Each year a new peneration of Pricets takes its place at the Alter to offer up the Body and Blood of Christ in the Holy Sacrifice.

Salis Presbyterist Faithfully and loyally Catholics continue to show their love and reverence for Jesus Christ by the love and reverence they show to Priests as ministers of Christ and dispensers of His mysteries. To so other men do they give the particular respect and veneration that they show to the Priest.

corps that serve the people of the Diocese of Rochaster. Bishop Kearney will impose hands upon them, giving them the Sacrament of Holy Orders. They will come forth from the sanctuary of the Pro-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart bearing in their souls the apiritual mark that belongs only to Priests of Christ. Their hands have been consecrated to touch the Secred Elements in Holy Mass. They have been clothed with the priestly vestments that they shall wear daily at the altar. Whatsoever they shall bless shall be blessed: whatsoever they shall consecrate, shalf be consecrated; whose sins they shall forgive, shall be forgiven. Solls Presbyterial May the hearts of all of us, clergy and laity, be with Blahop Kearney on next Saturday as he ordains these new Priests. The salvation of many thousands of souls is intimately united to the power and dignity of Priesthood now imparted. May God Bless all these young Priests and help them to realize their reaponsibility; to them alone as Priests of God they salute him with the name of "Father." of Christ in the Holy Mass. God Bless them They may have deep regard for all those in their work.
