

School Children Honor Fr. Gannon On Jubilee

Hornell — The entire student body of St. Ann's School honored the Rev. Lawrence Gannon, pastor, with special ceremonies Sunday in observance of his Silver Jubilee of ordination to the Holy Priesthood.

Pupils of the fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth grades sang for the 9 a.m. Mass in St. Ann's Church. The Gregorian chant was directed by the Sisters of Mercy. The student body received Holy Communion for the intention of Father Gannon. Following Mass a program was presented on the lawn of St. Ann's rectory. Each grade participated in a song or recitation in honor of Father Gannon's 25th anniversary as a priest.

ORIGINAL WORDS were written by students and faculty members in keeping with the occasion. Popular and old-time songs supplied the melodies.

William Loree was accompanist; Edward Marks, director, and James Reardon, announcer. All are pupils of St. Ann's ninth grade.

Father Gannon was presented 25 red roses, one for each year of his priesthood, by the student body. Mary Baird, eighth grade student, assisted by James Evenden, seventh grade, made the presentation.

A spiritual bouquet was given the pastor by the school. Edward Marks and little Rose Marie Rascito represented the student body in presenting the gift. Barbara Kios, in behalf of the pupils of all grades, presented Father Gannon with a purse.

The complete program follows: "God Bless You, Father
