St. Ambrose Cinches Title In Parish School League

By HOWARD F. MEATH
CYA Program Director

As a result of Friday night's ball game at Russert's Field, a new champion was crowned in the CYA Parochial Grammar School Softball League. St. Ambrose team, a slight underdog entering the final game, trimmed the up-to-then undefeated St. Anthony team by a score of 6 to 2.

Walks and costly errors by the St. Anthony team gave the St. Ambrose outfit, a couple of their runs and added enthusiasm to go on to win. This win wasn't, by any means, all due to St. Anthony's weakness. Grasadonia, the St. Ambrose pitcher, did a splendid job on the mound.

This coupled with the tight defense set up by the infield and the spectacular catches made by Zlocaria, the center fielder, all added up to constant trouble for the St. Anthony aggregation. Coleman and Pierline were outstanding for St. Anthony's.

IN THE HIGH school quarter final round, St. Charles defeated Holy Trinity while Our Lady of Lourdes team took a forfeit from Blessed Sacrament. Winners of these two games will meet Friday night, June 22 at Aquinas Field.

Examinations and termination of school activities have hindered game scheduling in the Western Division. These play-off games will start Friday night.
