'No Goodby To God's Help,' Bishop Tells Auburn Graduates

Auburn — Graduates departing from Holy Family High School were warned not to say 'goodbye' to the spiritual forces...

"Religious training is simply not the addition of Christian doctrine to the curriculum," the bishop said...

"YOUR BELIEGION has not been simply something you have studied, but it is the one great contribution that is destined to remain with you after you have left Holy Family..."

"And as you look back it will be with the consciousness that Holy Family has not only taught you history, the languages, etc., but has given you a Christian culture and made you ladies and gentlemen in the finest sense of the word."

"WHAT DOES she ask in return? Only your fidelity, that she will never be ashamed of you. No matter where you are, no matter what your responsibilities are, remember that the Holy Family, who has dominated your alma mater will always follow you."

"From the Holy Family halls of learning on earth, your responsibility is now transferred to the Holy Family in heaven and they will pass judgment on whether you have kept faith with the Holy Family on earth..."

THE PASTOR, the Rt. Rev. Monsignor John A. Conway, spoke words of welcome to those assembled and of commendation for the class about to graduate.
