Avon Priest Speaks At Parish School Graduation

Avon — The Rev. Charles E. Muckie, pastor of St. Agnes Church, Avon, awarded diplomas to fourteen graduates and prizes to other pupils of St. Agnes Parish School at annual commencement exercises held in St. Agnes Church.

Commencement speaker was the Rev. Edward A. Shamon, assistant pastor of St. Agnes Church.

FATHER SHAMON pointed out the soundness of the education which the graduates received at St. Agnes.

"Schools are to teach, but when they teach should determine what they teach," he said. "If young people attending the schools of our country are simply pieces of clay, then modern education is right in molding them as we would little pieces of clay. If they are simply combinations of chemical elements, then modern education is correct in treating them as we would combinations of chemicals in a scientific laboratory. If they are simply animals with minds, then modern education is right in seeking to pack those minds full of knowledge."

"But man is not simply a creature composed of a mind to think. He also has a will to act. A system of education, therefore, that seeks to pack the mind with knowledge and neglects the will is not only imperfect and awkward, but even vicious and dangerous."

"MODERN EDUCATORS state that knowledge is power. It is power, indeed, but a power which can be used in two ways. An accountant, for instance, can use his knowledge either to help his employer or to swindle him. There must be many a musician in the world who knows twice as much as...

St. Agnes Holds Mass For All Graduates Of Parish

Avon — Members of St. Agnes Parish, here, who graduated this year from college, high school or grammar school attended 10 o'clock Mass Sunday at St. Agnes Church and received Holy Communion in a body garbed in their graduating attire.

Following the celebration of Mass a communion breakfast was served to the entire group at St. Agnes School by the Rosary Society of the church. Parents, relatives and friends of the graduates and representatives of the Avon Central school faculty together with members of St. Agnes Church attended the services.

MASS WAS celebrated by Rev. Edward Shamon, assistant pastor. The Rev. Charles E. Muckie, pastor, delivered the sermon to the graduates in which he stated "we should always make Jesus Christ the model after which to pattern our lives and on this occasion I would emphasize particularly in conforming our will to the will of our Heavenly Father."

"CHRIST, THE Second Person of the Blessed Trinity was sent by the Father on the earth to glorify the Father, by redeeming mankind. From the first moment of His existence to the last during His life as man here upon earth He was intent upon doing the will of His Father."
