

Central Chapter To Elect Staff

Thirty-three Knights of Columbus councils in the Diocese of Rochester and Syracuse will send delegates to the annual Central New York Chapter meeting in Cortland Sunday afternoon.

Sessions presided over by William J. Mix of Cortland, chairman, will begin at 2 p.m. Election of officers will be the principal business.

Officers from Rochester diocese area to take part are Francis J. Welch, Canandaigua, who is vice chairman and Joseph J. Sweet, Corning, treasurer.

Other officers whose terms are also expiring are: J. Johnson, Cazenovia, warden; Fr. R. Dolan, Endicott, inside guard and R. M. Fitzgerald, Ellettsville, outside guard.

12 Catholic Institutions Named In Mrs. Flood Will

A dozen Catholic institutions as contingent beneficiaries will get the bulk of the estate of Mrs. Mary Stafford Flood, 404 Campbell St., it was indicated on Tuesday when her will was admitted to probate by Surrogate G. Robert Wiltmer.

Mrs. Flood was a sister of the Rev. Thomas F. Stafford, pastor of Holy Cross Church, Ovid.

A $30,000 legacy to St. Bernard's Seminary to establish a fund for a professorship is among these bequests, contingent on the life use of the residuary estate by a sister and a brother. On the death of those two kin, the will provides that a total of $57,000 will go to 11 institutions, including the $30,000 to St. Bernard's in memory of the Stafford and Flood families, and that the remainder shall be given to the Carmelite Monastery, 1530 East Ave.

Mrs. Flood died June 28. She was the widow of Joseph F.

High Schools Get Patriotic Plaques From KC Assembly

Reading a replica of the Declaration of Independence in natural colors, six plaques have been presented to Catholic high schools in the city by Rochester Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus according to Donald E. Woerner, executive director.

The plaques are a project of the Assembly's Catholic Historical Committee headed by Charles A. Tucker. He was assisted in the first presentation by R. Francis Healey of the Assembly.

Of a size 18 and 25 inches, the plaques, preserved in plastic, bear the inscription "Presented by Rochester Fourth Degree Assembly Knights of Columbus."

IN EXPRESSING appreciation, principals of the high schools said the plaques will be placed in a conspicuous spot in the school halls.

Relected with Faithful Navigator at the Assembly meeting last Thursday in Columbus, Ohio, were: Warren J. Hill, faithful captain; Charles A. Tucker, faithful captain; James V. Crowley, faithful pilot; James E. Martin, faithful controller; Ralph F. Murphy, inside sentinel; and Eugene R. Ouster, outside sentinel. The Rev. Richard C. Nangle is faithful friar.

The Assembly also awarded New Testaments to the graduates in each of the six Catholic High Schools who had the highest average in American history. Woerner reported.

Brother of Non Head Of New York Police

New York City's new police commissioner, George P. Monahan, a former Canandaigua, is the brother of Sister M. Miriam of Nazareth Academy.

The 49-year-old former city commissioner is the son of the late John and Ella Monahan of Canandaigua. He had seven brothers and sisters in the Canandaigua area.
