Bishop von Ketteler

MARY LEMMON SNYDER

...of the statement that true Catholic Action is a life of prayer, I recently read an interesting article in "Books of Change" by Joseph H. Fichter, S.J. ... "The Socialism of a Catholic review ... the work of the great German leader of the ..."

"By this I do not mean that he was guilty of the modern theory of the active apostolate which is all too common among energetic people and which implies mere activity can clear up the problems of the world. ..."

... Bishop von Ketteler, Father Fichter says, "That von Ketteler was more in the apostolic tradition of St. Paul than in the modern of the sentimentalistic life does not make character the less edifying."

Cloistered Nuns Heard in Radio Rosary Broadcast

Philadelphia—(NO)—What is believed to be the first time the voices of cloistered nuns were heard outside the walls of their convent took place here when four Clare nuns joined in a recitation of the Rosary. It was sponsored by the Philadelphia Catholic Lay Forum's Rosary broadcast from the Monastery of St. Clare.

WHAT'S DOING AT THE DALYS'

Truth Crushed to Earth ... BY MARY TIMLEY DALY

Johnny was shocked this afternoon when he discovered that his young sister does not always tell the truth ... Ginny had been told to stay home with Johnny while Markie and I went to the grocery, but when we got home there was no Ginny.

'Masquerade' For Family Theater Presentation

Robert Ryan will be host for Family Theater's presentation of "Masquerade" on Wednesday, August 22nd, at 9:30 p.m. A SPARKLING little comedy, "Masquerade" re-creates the merry story of Jane Saunders and her Cinderella-like experience as she poses as a great movie star to convince her hometown boy friend to "pop the question".
