Reading School For Adults, Children To Open At Mercy

A private Reading Laboratory School, offering remedial reading instruction for both children and adults interested in improving their reading skills, will be opened within the next week by the Sisters of Mercy in conjunction with their new Teacher Education School at the Motherhouse, 1437 Blas Road.

A complete testing program has been set up for the diagnosis of individual reading problems, including tests in intelligence personality, and aptitudes, together with the standard clinical survey tests of reading capacity, reading achievement and the analysis of reading difficulties.

The diagnosis will be offered free of charge to determine whether or not the applicant is a candidate for remedial reading instruction.

THIS SERVICE is being offered to the community at the suggestion of the New York State Department of Education as a result of recent scientific investigation of the reading ability levels across the country.

One statistical study indicates that approximately 30 per cent of the children in elementary

ENTERING NOTRE DAME U.

When two boys from his parish, Holy Ghost, Castorina, and each from a family of 10 children, enter Notre Dame University Monday, their pastor, Rev. Albert J. Golier, above, will be on hand. The boys are from left: Edward Schleifer and Charles Peter. The Castorina boy was a partial scholar at the Holy Cross Fathers Institute.

Geneva Parish Men To Come To Rochester For Retreat

Geneva — Holy Name Society members of St. Stephen's parish will visit the Notre Dame Retreat House in Rochester, Sept. 19.

The retreat house, which was opened last year, replaces the local retreat center, Our Lady of Lake Retreat and Mission House, on Lochland Rd. The house was sold recently to the American Legion.

The Genevians will leave for Rochester at 7 p.m. and return scheduled for Nov. 29 and 30.
