GOD LOVE YOU to E. McG.: "While I was piloting a plane yesterday cross country from Chattanooga, Tennessee, to Nashville, I was saying my usual prayers that I say while flying and the thought came to me to send a dollar for each hour that I fly, to your wonderful missions. I can keep track of my hours in the air, and I will send along the dollars as I build up my time . . . GOD LOVE YOU to J. J. M. who sent $100 and writes: "Enclosed is our 'bit' from the office here towards the charities abroad: those of us who have 'chipped' in have our many and grave failings: so we ask the prayers of the missionaries that we may overcome them."... GOD LOVE YOU to Mrs. J. M. L.: "I am indeed thoroughly ashamed of my discontent and the wishing for more material things. I am indeed grateful to God for having what I do have-a snug home and the love of three children. Enclosed find $5.00 and I pledge $5.00 per month for a year to be sent on the 10th of each month. I pledge to miss one meal a week and send the money separately once a month.

GOD LOVE YOU to Mrs. P L who, for 31 years, has been dreaming of a rug for her living room "Finally," she says. "I am able to buy one, not the one I dreamed of but one that will serve! the purpose. Will send the difference to the missions as it will probably do more good than my walking on it." . . . GOD LOVE YOU to T R who sends $10 and tells us that he and his girlfriend happen to be born on the same day Somehow " he says, "each of us discovered that the other has always had an awful time trying to pick out a birthday present. It is obvious that the best gift possible is a missionary s prayers and perhaps you would send us two World Mission Resaries. We realize that ten dollars cannot convert Africa but it is enough to supply an African missionary with a box of Mass candles ' GOD LOVE YOU to Mrs C who writes, Pieace accept our small donation of $50 for the Missions. Next month we were going to celebrate our wedding anniversary by having guests in for dinner but my husband said, lets Order of St Francis will resume sacrifice that and send the money to the missions "

A World Mission Bosary blessed will be sent for an offering of $2.00 to the Hely Father's Hissions. We read Mass every Sunday for everyone who makes a sacrifice for the Holy Father's Missions.
