Need For Community Backing For USO Told To HNS Group

Geneva—Need for community support of the USO program was stressed by Martin O'Brien, newly appointed director of the Geneva USO in an address here on Sept. 5.

He was guest speaker at a meeting and installation of officers of the Holy Name Mens club of St. Stephen's parish held in the Legion Home.

The speaker citing the importance of the USO role in the national and community picture, appealed for additional junior hostesses and other Geneva women to assist in the USO, activities.

He said the USO gives the serviceman a contact with civilian life and brings to him the ideals and inspirations of individuals in the community. O'Brien particularly stressed the influence of Christian principles to offset the confusion created by Communism in the world.

OFFICERS installed were: William Riley, president; John Monaco, vice president; Ray Buttaccio, secretary; Jack Buckley and Henry McDonald, marshals.

The guest speaker was presented by the Rev. Robert H. Fennessy, club moderator. Michael McDonald, past president, was toastmaster.

Hope In Japanese Treaty Told Kiwanis

The peace treaty with Japan may well mark the dawn of an era, the Era of Hope rooted in Justice, Miss Zelda Lyons, a member of the staff of St. John Fisher College in the Department of History, told the North east Kiwanis members at their meeting, this week.

Miss Lyons who is also registrar and director of public relations at the college cited from the treaty. "The eternal values of justice and charity preside over the destiny of mankind We've tried to live by opportune compromise . . . the plaintive cry of millions calls for 'principles'"

Reflecting on the significance of the Japanese Peace Treaty and the San Francisco Conference, Miss Lyons noted that never before in modern times have victors in a great and bitter war applied the principle so evident in this agreement among Nations . . . the principle of reconciliation built on the premise that the principle of fairness magnimimity and idealism are the best guarantees for mutual trust and understanding among nations and peoples.
