The Seminary Letter—1951

The Annual Seminary Letter will be read to us on Sunday morning. Bishop Kearney makes his annual appeal for St. Bernard's Seminary and St. Andrew's Seminary. These two great schools were never in better condition than they are now.

Stately buildings at St. Bernard's have been kept in prime condition and they welcome this year one of the largest classes in the history of the institution. St. Andrew's Seminary, with its new building, is able to give yeoman service to over two hundred students. Bishop Kearney's appeal is for the support of the students of the Rochester Diocese attending these two schools.

Our seminaries are absolutely dependent on the devotion of our people to the priesthood and on the generosity fostered by that devotion. That devotion and that generosity are traditional throughout the Diocese. Year after year our people have given to the Seminary Collection amounts that have been large enough to enable the Bishop to carry on the work of training men for the priesthood. Thoroughly and effectively following the tradition are men and women in all the parishes who will listen to the Seminary Letter this Sunday, will take home with them the Seminary envelope, will return it with their offering on Seminary Sunday, September 30th.

Every friend of the Seminary will ask himself what he can give and what he should give to this cause. His gift must cover a full year on this basis: an offering of $50.00 means $1.00 per week, of $25.00 means $.50 per week, of $10.00 means $.20 a week, of $5.00, $.10 a week. Have all this in mind when you prepare your gift and you will be prompted to be a true benefactor of our Seminaries in your 1951 contribution.

Laborers In The Vineyard

The Lord exhorted his Disciples to pray that God would send laborers into His Vineyard. That exhortation goes out in every age to clergy and laity. From the homes of our people come the candidates for the priesthood and from the resources of our families comes the support for the schools that send priests into the Church. Our parishes and all their parishioners for many generations have drawn great spiritual profit from the splendid priesthood that has come from our Seminaries.

Laborers for the harvest! Be sure to unite your prayers with those of all your brethren on Seminary Sunday. Pray for the students, pray for the faculty. Make your seminary contribution an outward expression of the devotion to our seminaries that dwells in your own heart.

Benefactors Old and New

Your annual seminary offering makes you a benefactor of the Seminary. Your parents and grandparents before you enabled the Bishop to found the Seminary and to support it. They were benefactors of old. You are benefactors of the present day. Be sure to include your parents and other relatives in your seminary gift. Make it in your name and in memory of them.

The prayers of the seminarians at St.

Bernard's and at St. Andrew's go up daily for all benefactors, both living and dead. God will not forget those who are helping to send laborers into the harvest. It will be a great consolation to every benefactor to realize that day after day while he is living and through all the years after he has died, dedicated souls, called by God to the ministry, will be uttering a fervent prayer for him.

Centenary At Ovid

One hundred years ago the parish at Ovid was founded as "Holy Cross Parish". Through all those years the faith of the people has been blessed with the constant ministrations of a Priest of God, with Holy Mass daily and Sunday, and with the ministry of grace and of the word. Baptism has welcomed many an infant into the Church. Catechetical instructions and sermons have built up a knowledge of the faith in thousands of people. The Sacrament of Penance has brought grace into the souls of many generations. Frequent communion has sanctified all the parish. Matrimony has blessed the union of loving couples forming the homes of the parish. Holy Cross Church has been the spiritual center for all these homes for one hundred years. It has seen events in the life of all its parishioners; it has kept them close to God; it has given the final blessing to its people as they have been called from life.

Our congratulations go out to Father Stafford and his assistant Father Bleier on the Centennial of Holy Cross Church. May God grant special graces to the Priests for what they have done for their parish and for their parishioners. May the people of Holy Cross continue to find in it the central interest of their lives on earth and the portal to their eternal life with God.

FOR PRIESTS AND PHARISEES

Just what did the Priests and Pharisees get from the parables spoken to them by Our Lord? Surely the Priests had not been at all eager to come close to Christ or to accept His teachings. There was not enough sincerity in the heart of an ordinary Pharisee to make him worthy of Christ's attention. But Christ wanted to bring to salvation both of these groups. He wanted His grace to penetrate their souls. He wanted them to be members of His Kingdom, members of His Church. From the parable of the wedding feast Christ gave them a vivid picture of His Church.

Membership in His Church is not in itself enough for salvation. It must include the love of God and obedience to God's commandments as virtues necessary for salvation. Our cooperation, with His Grace, will make that call the occasion of our salvation. For many are called but few are chosen.

Pontiff Receives Indian Minister

Mr. Rajagavan, India's first Minister to the Vatican, who died some months ago.

Our Lady Of The Genesee

Your light is the beatitude of prayer:
A citadel that guards the troubled world.
Inviolate you hold conviction's flame
And humbly keep the flag of faith unfurled.
On danger's road we pause and ask for grace:
And pray God keep your stronghold ever safe.
You are the fortitude to which we turn
When errors of the way have left us waf.

Slave Of Fear

GRETTA PALMER

A Toy Frontier Jail or Apostasy

Hong Kong, China. The Maginot Line was a real Iron Curtain—a formidable frontier of brick, steel, and concrete. It was all that divided Hong Kong from the mainland. It was a barrier that no more than 20 yards across. That is how the Iron Curtain looks today.

ON THE RED SIDE a woman, with a baby bound to her back, is crying piteously. She has visas and the guards cannot let her into British territory. She is working with primitive picks at repairing the Chinese railroad tracks between the border and the mainland. She waits a few days to pass.

Several women, like this one, with heavy loads on their backs, show their passes and are admitted back into the territory. These are reliable passes. They are lowered out on business to bring back goods and information.

A dozen soldiers of the Communist Chinese army are lined up to show passes and are admitted. They are Chinese boys, some at the boundary for several days because of red tape are also allowed through.

They are leaders of the Shanghai Legion of Mary in St. Francis College leaving China with the full consent of their spiritual fathers because of their known opposition to the Red apostate Independent Catholic Church. They swing their small valises to their backs, step for Red police interrogation and get aboard the Hong Kong train.

Why have they left? What is their future? Such boys have no funds no profession, no contacts in all the world except the charity of other Catholics. One is a convert of two years who would like to become a priest, but his pagan family has objected.

The other comes of an Independent Catholic family who fled to escape trial and possible torture and certain persecution. They have a few dresses of Catholic institutions in Hong Kong where they may seek a temporary refuge. But the streets here are filled with Chinese refugees who have sold all they own and are reduced to beggary. Formosa will admit only a few Chinese, the other countries almost none. Boys such as these have no future: all they have is Christian hope.

There is a tiny minuscule story of the Church—it is not news, for it occurs too commonly. Their "crime" was the apostasy: As leaders of their Legion of Mary presidium they were expected to strengthen any waverers. One of their boys had signed a document endorsing the "Independent Church" they spoke to him, explained that this meant true apostasy, told him that he should not receive Communion until he had confessed his signing as a sin and asked the priest's advice. Word of this got out among the Communist students.

There was the "crime" of fidelity to the Faith—the common est "crime" in many sections of China today. Foreign priests are being forced out fast, the last formal diplomatic tie with the Vatican was severed with the expulsion of Archbishop Ebner from Nanking. Chinese priests are now turned into farmers and workmen with whom contact is immensely dangerous. Access to the Sacraments is very difficult.

Yet the Chinese people are keeping the Faith. The proofs of this are innumerable. In Peking all churches are closed, but the Communists have stated that any priest who joins the Independent Catholic Church may open any of them tomorrow. None has joined.

At the end of the year, 1949, the Chinese had been opened but not to the Faith. They are simple except for a poor frightened man, often a Priest, who has been driven out of his parish and is trying to find a way to get back. This is a worldwide war of religions, and honest converts are not made for any show of steel.

It is not ideologies that are opposed. It is the Faith that is being fought for. The Communist Party, the word "democratic" is a lie. This is a war between Christ and Anti-Christ, between the Church and those who wish its destruction.

At the other values threatened and obliterated in Communist China are the "natural virtues," the power to stand up under the task. For this effort to destroy the soul can be met only by the supernatural. And it is only when they are defending God Himself that men walk off blithely and penniless, from all they knew and loved and say, "I had to come. To remain would have meant jail or apostasy."

Convent Receives Japanese Novices

The Kyoto group of Notre Dame Sisters, who came here from St. Louis Mo. hope to open a girls high school here next spring.

THE TWO DANGERS

Carthage has in preaching a social message of the Church are timidity and imprudence.

Timidity prevents a from trying out against injustice and from proposing tried and tested means of social reform because of the fear of ridicule and personal loss. Such fears are inconsistent with the attitude that should characterize a Christian. The social message of the Church is a duty, not a privilege. It is a duty that must be done whether or not it is popular. It is a duty that must be done whether or not it is profitable. It is a duty that must be done whether or not it is fashionable. It is a duty that must be done whether or not it is convenient. It is a duty that must be done whether or not it is easy. It is a duty that must be done whether or not it is pleasant.
