Our Lady Will Be At Home

By MARY E. FITZGERALD

—And invites you to make with her, the Seventh Annual Rosary Novena at the Dominican Monastery. Services each evening will be at seven-thirty o'clock beginning Saturday, Sept. 28, and including Saturday, Oct. 6, with the closing of the Novena held out of doors on Rosary Sunday, Oct. 7, at 3:30 p. m.

This efficacious devotion to our Blessed Lady has been attended by a capacity crowd for the past six years and many favors, both spiritual and temporal, were received by those who participated in it.

An invitation to attend is extended to each Lady of Charity and to every man, woman and child who has been a friend to the Dominican Sisters and especially to those Elmira residents who have not visited Rosary Paradise.

Then Our Holy Father, Leo XIII, raised the feast to second class to obtain Our Lady's aid amidst the trials of Holy Mother Church at that time. So now, almost 400 years after the first Rosary Sunday, an observance is being planned in a new Rosary Paradise.

BISHOP KEARNEY has designated the Elmira Monastery as the central headquarters for the Rosary in the Rochester Diocese. It is our privilege to be so close to this Spiritual Powerhouse that we may with little sacrifice make this Novena to our Lady.

The world today is pulling away from its moorings and is being tossed about in a threatening storm of unprecedented violence. Millions of God's people have lost all contact with our Divine Savior and His Blessed Mother and more tragically with every basic principle of wrong and right.

Charity to some means a grocery order or a few pieces of used clothing condescendingly bestowed upon a less fortunate human being. Charly synonym with the Name of Mary whispers of her great love of God and consequently her acceptance of His will.

ious answers to the petitions of the Dominican Sisters during the seven years that they have been in Elmira.

As is true of so many of our prayers, some of you are guilty of not saying "Thank You" for favors received. The Sisters would appreciate a telephone call, a note or a message in person, from anyone who wishes to let them know that their prayers have been answered.

The Novena this year is an opportunity for you to say Thank You to the Queen of the Rosary and to ask her powerful intercession for yourself and your dear ones for all that you wish for them at present and in the future. From St. Catherine of Siena we learn through one of her writings that "There are few who arrive at that perfection of life with which God both ought to be and must be served almost everyone on this account is disquieted by a thousand cares and fluctuating amid a
