School of Holy Childhood Makes Appeal For 'Paper Patrons' As Benefactors

"Paper Patrons," to cooperate with the School of the Holy Childhood, newly opened this year are asked in an appeal issued at the school today. The letter follows:

Dear Friends,

The School of the Holy Childhood, 215 Andrews Street, is a new project. It will be for children who require special training. Instruction in all basic subjects — Religion, Reading, Arithmetic, etc will be offered. Then, too, there will be Home Making and Manual Training Courses which will not only help students to adjust socially, but will also enable them to fit into industry.

Last Spring a Waste Paper Drive was sponsored throughout the Diocese for the purpose of establishing this project permanently. We are extremely grateful to each and every child and adult who supported this drive in any way. The response was marvelous and most gratifying.

We are not asking for another Paper Drive.

We are asking our friends to become Paper Patrons. By that we mean people who will save waste paper, magazines, regularly. Then the School of the Holy Childhood will send a truck every four or five weeks to pick up and transport these bundles to the mill. By so doing, you become a Paper Patron—hence a benefactor of the School of the Holy Childhood. We would appreciate immensely, if you would help to promote this cause by asking your relatives and friends to become patrons. Since the paper company requests that we keep newspapers and magazines separate, also that the bundles be tied, we are asking all of our Paper Patrons, who would find this convenient, to help us in this way.

It will be necessary for all Paper Patrons to send their name and address to the School of the Holy Childhood. For convenience, we are including a form which you can fill in and send. However, your friends and relatives who may not have a copy of this form, may just send in the same information. If there is any question in your mind about being a Paper Patron, you may call the School of the Holy Childhood, HA 8350, any Saturday.

All benefactors will be remembered in a special way daily when the students and faculty of the School of the Holy Childhood pause to say the Rosary for those who have made this project possible. God bless you for any part you wish to play!

The faculty and students of the School of the Holy Childhood.

Sampson Chaplain Heard By Seneca Falls CDA Unit

Seneca Falls—Court Seneca Falls, Catholic Daughters of America, held their annual banquet last Monday, Sept. 24, at The Armitage, beginning at 7 p. m.

Mrs. Julia Burns and Mrs. Alice Sandroni were co-chairmen. Mrs. Mary Curry, Grand Regent of the Court, welcomed clergy and Daughters. Mrs. Mary Mikey acted as toastmistress.

Mrs. Mikey introduced the various speakers. Rev. John P. O'Beirne, pastor of St. Patrick's Parish and chaplain of the Court, gave a short talk. Rev. Thomas C. Kane and Rev. Edward J. Christoph, assistant pastor, also spoke.

PRINCIPAL ADDRESS of the evening was delivered by Rev. Albert C. M. Steffens, newly appointed Chaplain of the U. S. Air Force, stationed at Sampson Air Base. Father Steffens gave an inspiring speech. Father Steffens recently returned to America after spending considerable time in Japan and Korea. He spoke in particular about the assistance lent to the missionaries in Japan by the U. S. military personnel before the Korean war.

Father Steffens also described a trip he had taken to Europe at which time he met Therese Neumann, the Stigmatic, at her home in Konnersreuth, Germany.

On the entertainment program, Margaret Fraser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fraser, sang two solos, and Donald D'Ereditu, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D'Ereditu, and Robert Brancefore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Brancefore, gave saxophone duets. Mrs. John Fraser was accompanist for her daughter, and for the group singing.

The program closed with the hymn, "Holy God, We Praise Thy Name."

Bishop Kearney Blesses 2 New School Structures

Rev. Francis W. Mason, of Rochester.

The new wing contains four class rooms, teachers' room, library, science laboratory, principal's office and showers.

THE NEW GYM is on a lot directly west of the school. It is about 82 feet wide, 120 feet long and 22 feet high. At one end there is a modern stage about 45 by 33 feet. There are two dressing rooms, one on each side of the stage. Other features include a room for chair storage and an office and lavatories. Walls of the gym are two-toned tan and cream. An eight section lighting arrangement is used, each section containing five separate lights. An attractive electric score board hangs on the entrance wall of the gym.

WITH MORE than 1,000 persons present, the Bishop blessed the new St. Francis Parochial School in Auburn on Sunday afternoon.

Assisted by the Rev. John Nacca, pastor, and the Rev. Dr. Charles Mahoney, superintendent of the Catholic school system of the diocese, the Bishop hung a large crucifix over the main entrance, after which he proceeded throughout the building, blessing each room. He later addressed the throng assembled in the school auditorium.

In his address, Bishop Kearney, who was presented by the Rev. Joseph Beatini assistant pastor stressed that no character building agency was comparable to that of a Catholic school. The Bishop congratulated Father Nacca on his zeal that sparked the campaign for the new school, and he lauded the people of the parish for their generosity in sacrificing much to realize the final completion of the school.

He ended with a personal note relative to the great joy that was his as Bishop of the diocese to see another parochial school added to the Catholic educational system for the education of a generation of Catholic youth whose hearts are inscribed with the words "In God We Trust."

Father Nacca briefly addressed the group and expressed his gratitude first to God for the realization of the months of planning. He also thanked the Bishop for his guidance and counsel and ways most helpful. In conclusion, the young pastor noted that each of the seven Catholic parishes in Auburn now has a parochial school.

Following the addresses of the clergy, an entertainment by the school children was presented, after which refreshments were served. An opportunity was also offered for visiting class rooms.

The city officials present included Mayor Edward T. Boyle, City Manager George Train, City Clerk George Shamon, and Commissioner of parks Albert De Lorenzo.

The following clergy were present: The Rt. Rev. Msgr. William E. Cowen, the Rev. John B. Crowley, the Rev. William Davie, the Rev. Kiernan Hickey, O. Carm., the Rev. Joachim Snyder, O. Carm., the Rev. James Collins, the Rev. Basil Ostas, the Rev. Irvin Sullivan, the Rev. Charles Drumm, and the Rev. Orrin Feller.

Sodality Slates Spaghetti Supper

SS. Peter and Paul's Women's Sodality of the Immaculate Heart of Mary will sponsor a spaghetti supper in the school hall Tuesday, Oct. 9, from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m.
