OCTOBER IS ROSARY MONTH

Heading the request of His Holiness Pope Pius XII who has asked for an intensified Rosary Crusade for peace, Catholics throughout the world will observe October as Rosary Month. The Dolan Triplets and their brothers, children of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dolan of Dubuque, Ia., recite the Rosary before a statue of Our Lady of the Rosary of Fatima. Left to right are: Mary, Michael and Maureen, aged 5 years; Jim, 8, and Dan 3.

AMONG WOMEN

Close To Christ

By MARY LENNON SNYDER

During September it was my good fortune to attend in the same parish two business meetings of different societies which regardless of their official titles might be called Women of Good Will. The membership of each group was composed of women who have heavy responsibilities in their private lives—either as wives and mothers or as women with professional or business careers.

N.D. Women's Group Presents Style Show A successful fur and millinery style show was held by the Women's Organization of the Notre Dame Alumni Club at the Chatterbox Club on Saturday.

THE PASTOR and moderators through the years have kept in close touch with the members and their activities and have always stressed the spiritual side of the organization work.

WHAT'S DOING AT THE DALYS'

Wanted: A Time Budget

By MARY TINKLEY DALY

With Ginny in school all day, I had thought there would be plenty of time for outside activities—joining organizations and developing hobbies. It would really be doing something for someone else and, at the same time, building up interests to insure against a boring old age.

I couldn't be a leader or prime mover in any organization, of course, but there are so many places for people with a little spare time and the willingness to use it. There are those first two loves: St. Ann's Infant Home and the Christ Child Society, both needing volunteers. Then there are Community Chest, Red Cross work, church activities, visiting the sick and aged in old people's homes...

AND THE hobbies to be explored long hours of uninterrupted sewing when you could do tailoring; furniture refinishing and upholstery; writing of a serious nature that requires research...

With all the children "on their own"—for the first time in 20 years—there would be many hours every day for these out-of-the-ordinary activities. That was my thought on the subject and I guess I must have expressed it pretty freely.

Now that you have more time," the Head of the House suggested, "think you could type this manuscript for me? Edit it as you go and chop out 2500 words?"

Why, that would be fun! It was—but it wasn't easy, it wasn't too successful, and it took up an awful lot of time.

ATTENDING meetings to plan for future programs, canvassing a few blocks, calling and recalling on people. And then doing publicity for a charitable function—not hard, either, but so time-consuming: gathering the facts, arranging for coverage with each paper, greeting reporters and photographers at the function, writing the story for the papers that hadn't sent reporters, taking stories around to the newspaper offices.

"Hot dogs and canned beans for dinner?" somebody asked that night at dinner. "And canned spinach and peaches and store-bought cookies?" I thought now that you've had all that time on your hands we'll have small meals.

"And Mary and I got home and nobody was here," Ginny complained. "If you only knew how long it takes to get just a little bit done outside of home duties," I snapped.

"Wait till Mom gets going in her full stride!" the Head of the House continued. "Why, she has plans to do volunteer work for seventeen organizations and to take up six hobbies—including tap dancing. By that time we'll just take a pill for dinner."

"Are you gonna learn tap dancing, Mom?" Ginny asked. "Will you teach me?"

IT WENT ON and on—but I got the pitch. That "free time" which had seemed so limitless was only comparatively so. There was still a family of eight to care for, and not having to keep an eye on Ginny for six hours a day released only a little time.

There is a "Rule of the Order" for mothers just as there is for religious—not a rule laid down in black and white and enforced by a Mother Superior, but a rule just as binding in conscience.

And that Rule seems to me, to give prime consideration to those entrusted by God to our care.

Let old age be boring!

Induction of New Members Set By St. Stanislaus Unit

New members of the Holy Name of Mary Society of St. Stanislaus Church, will be inducted at a religious ceremony in the Church Tuesday, Oct. 9, at 7:30 p.m. Services will include recitation of the Rosary, sermon, induction of members, and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

The Rev. John E. McCafferty, J.C.D., will preach the sermon and members will be received into the society by the spiritual director, the Rev. Chester M. Klocek.

Following services in the church there will be a meeting in the old school hall. At this meeting the Constitution and By-laws will be proposed for ratification. Plans for a Halloween party are also on the agenda.

Refreshments will be served. Officers and committee heads for the coming year include: Mrs. Maryann Czarniak, President, Mrs. Helen Plazek, Vice President, Miss Sophie Cuddihy, Secretary, Mrs. Angela Zamara, Treasurer, Mrs. Irene Sokol, Marshall, Rev. Chester M. Klocek, Spiritual Director.

Mrs. Ann Janczak, Mission, Miss Rita Stronjny, Program, Mrs. Irene Podsiadlo, Refreshment, Miss Wanda Pietrzak, Publicity, Miss Dolores Jakuski, Membership, Mrs. Regina Brach, Catholic Action, Mrs. Irene Cyszczewski, Sick and Vigil, Mrs. Helen Klimel, Sports; Mrs. Gertrude Wierzbicki, Ways and Means, Mrs. Regina Myallwiec, Linen.

Archconfraternity Opens Fall Season First Fall meeting of the Archconfraternity of the Holy Family of St. Joseph's Church will be held Sunday, Oct. 7, following 7:30 Mass in the church.

A Communion breakfast will be served following in the school hall. A conference will be given by the spiritual advisor, the Rev. Joseph Winiacki, C.S.S.R.

Ada Meng is chairman of the breakfast and is being assisted by Irene Bullinger, Alma Keller, Frances Verhoeven and Dorothy Klem.

Officers for the current year are: Louise Brown, president, Mary Reichert, vice president, Margaret Brodier, recording secretary, Antoinette Mayer, assistant recording secretary, Marie Mayer, corresponding secretary, Max Schluger, assistant corresponding secretary, Lois Bayler, treasurer, Mary Hynes, assistant treasurer, and Catherine Ferris, publicity.

Minnie Verhoeven and Mary Klem have been appointed to visit sick members. Louise Deget has been appointed to the Board of Directors.

Forty hours devotions will be held in St. Joseph's Church October 7. The prayer hour for the members of the Archconfraternity will be held in the church from 5 to 6 p.m. Adelaide Beisenbach will play the organ.

HAPPIER DAY

It was a happier day than the present one when this photo was made of the PARISH CHURCH of 2300 CATMOULDS of THIRUVAMPADI, India. It has since COLLAPSED, and the 410 families now attend Mass in the nearby school. At nearby THIRUVARAM 100 more families have a similar shed in their Church.

OUR PROJECT FOR ROSARY MONTH—Build these 2 chapels, enlarge the school and open a dispensary to combat the scourge of MALARIA. That's STILL HAPPIER DAY will come for Father Arsenius and his flock, we invite your help. $2000 will get you a chapel. This might come as one gift or three DOLLAR CONTRIBUTIONS. To furnish it we'll need a High Altar, $100; Side Altar, 75; Baptistry, Confessional and Windows, 100; St. Bruno, 10; Stations, 25; Chalice, Mass-trace, Ciborium, 40; Sacrament, 50; Sac. Lamp, 15; Candlesticks, 10 p.c. Bell, 1. Sacred Mount Portable and Psa. Mission need you. Lady of the Rosary, help us!

CHRIST IN JAPAN Once-holy Russia had a mission in Japan which is now falling apart due to the religious agonies of the mother country. Jesuit Father Plovesana has been appointed to step into the breach and open up a CATHOLIC mission for these abandoned Christians. $1,000 is needed to furnish a Chapel and start a literature campaign. Perhaps you'll adopt this whole project. Maybe you can send $50 or 15. Every dollar will count.

HARD LUCK STORY Some of the "lucky" which seemed to dog the life of impetuous St. Peter during his training days is following his namesake, PETER HAGGIAR, of the Saida Seminary in Lebanon. 2 appeals for his tuition bursar have failed, and we're trying again for the $400, at $100 a year, he needs. When you get to the "peary gates," tell St. Peter you didn't pass up a boy whom he must be watching with a fatherly heart.

FLOWERING CHRISTIANITY With unbelievable self-sacrifice the Combien Sisters arrived at the day when 2 converts received First Communion at their school in Britton, East Africa. If we eat for $10 for this little school, it's because we know what it has done to bring God to hearts that for centuries groped in pagan darkness.

THE ROSARY SISTERS Implore you in ROSARY MONTH. The trials of their poverty-ridden existence in Palestine which for years are only hinted at by the MUD HUTS they must call "Convents." Yet 8 Arab girls, Sisters Lidora, Agnes, Rose, Benedicta, Angela, Lucienne, Juliana and Assisita ask only for a chance to prove they can take it—for love of Our Savior. Will you please adopt one? She'll need $150 in each of 2 years training.

"AN ARMY MARCHES" "on its stomach," said Napoleon, for this military genius knew that a man cannot do his work if he does not eat. If we beg a MASS OFFERING for a valiant mission-ary, it's only because it will keep him alive and strong enough to fight for souls.

DID YOU RENEW YOUR MEMBERSHIP THIS YEAR? ONLY $1.00 $5 FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY!

INNER SANCTUM Is really the "Holy of Holies," the Sanctuary of a Catholic Church where Jesus dwells to love with His children. They are not allowed to enter it, you can be there by the memorial you give a mission chapel: Golden Chalice, $40; Sanc. Lamp, 15; Lincens, 10; Candlestick, 10, 1.

QUARTETTE IN G The "G" stands for "Greenbacks" which at $4 a week would pay you eternal dividends in our Mission Club: BASILIANS, School support, CHRYSOSTOMS, Seminars, MONICA GUILD, Sanctuary upkeep, MARY'S BANK for Novices. Sacrifice some real luxury a week and you're in!
