AT LEAST HE SMILED

By MARY E. FITZGERALD Executive Director—Catholic Family Service

But that is not true of many of our Foster Children! The reason—straight from the shoulder—is just this—you have not answered our pleas for Foster Homes...

His father had gone out, days before to look for rice—but he did not return and his brother was either dead or had become one of the bands of wandering children...

Then, there are others, tiny infants, born out of wedlock, toddlers, whose mothers are ill or forced into the role of breadwinners...

THE MAD confusion of that Korean nightmare, our own G.I.'s took not only Kang, but many other little waifs, as orphans...

Sympathy, tears and understanding of this great problem in our midst, is needed in Elmira and Chemung County as much as it is in Korea...
