Holy Rosary Men To Receive Communion A specially prepared invitation to all men of Holy Rosary parish to join the Holy Name Society in receiving Holy Communion at 8 a.m. Sunday, Oct. 14, was distributed after Masses there last Sunday.

The invitation, which contained a message from the Rev. James J. Marvin, assistant pastor and spiritual director of the Society, and which listed the menu for a Communion breakfast at 9 a.m. in the school hall, began as follows: "Our Divine Savior, Jesus Christ, and His Blessed Mother, Mary, request the honor of your presence at the Holy Name Mass and Communion Sunday, the fourteenth of October, nineteen hundred and fifty-one, at eight o'clock."

Father Marvin's message pointed out the need for "a public profession of faith" especially in today's world crises, and urged the men to "stand up and be counted behind the standard of Christ the King."
