

Aquinas To Face Fast Team In Hard Prep of Connecticut

Frank Grano and Ted Bergeron, whose performances are aided by Al McNamara and Quarterback Joe Campagna.

Fete Blackwood and Dan Coughlin, who played with Aquinas in the '49-50 season, attended Biliard last year before entering Holy Cross. Biliard prepares youngsters for Naval and Coast Guard service.

AQUINAS FANS, some 17,200 of them, saw some satisfactory football "under the lights" at Memorial Stadium Friday night, Oct. 5—with the contest being "anybody's game" during the first half, and the Fork Union

Military Academy squad being a threat all the way. Statistics showed the game being much closer than the 37-10 score would indicate, with Aquinas capitalizing on at least two very fortunate "breaks."

It was no surprise to anyone that star center Billy Fackelman came out of the game with the "Player of the Week" award. His defensive play was a standout. Also in the hero column was Noel Marinetti, who kicked five successive points after touchdowns. Burns, Niermeyer, Santandrea and Hollender also won applause for stellar performance.

Coaches Harry (Mickey) Connolly and Basil Marella admitted they had been "pointing" for the Fork Union game, which undoubtedly would have been a closer one had the Virginia team been able to play two of its starting backs who were out because of previous injuries.

Aquinas Grid Squad At Altar Rail

FOOTBALL PLAYERS at Aquinas Institute are shown on the First Friday receiving Holy Communion in the school chapel. Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Cyril Carter, C.S.B., school athletic director, who appears with Don Scheld, Joe Chase and Howie Lapple.

Pucino's 562 High In Auburn League

Auburn — Joe Pucino, captain of the Canisius team of the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League, rolled games of 195, 191 and 176 for a 562 total, the high for the day, which sparked his team to a four to nothing victory over Georgetown. Paul J. Graney with 526 helped Canisius to go into second place.

Frank Stapleton with 560, the second high of the day; H. "Champ" Jones with 522 and Joe Stapleton with 503 led Santa Clara to a four to nothing victory over Notre Dame, who has thus far failed to win a point. John Terry rolled 527 for the losers.

Gonzaga sparked by John Bodnar's 523 and Wilson Long's 190 game took three points from Loyola — the fourth point will be decided next week. Charlie Rice helped out the victors.

DELIGHTING the pre-game crowd was the "Aquinas of 57 Team"—a spirited bunch of grammar school youngsters, fully uniformed, who ran through formations and passing plays. They included Allen Hoyt, Denny Coyne, Austin McGreal, John Stampfli, Bobby Arnold, Larry Beahman and Bobby Mirgout.

The "Little Irish" again revealed their expert coaching and conditioning in outplaying their bigger foes... Connolly, still beaming with joy, said in reserve, has his fingers crossed in the hope that the boys will last through the remaining six games.

Catholic League

Another week of the Catholic League's Bowling season has gone by and a poor one it is reported as far as scores go.

The high team single was a mere 973 rolled by Corpus Christi and high single of 218 was rolled by Pat Ferrari of Immaculate No. 2.

Other 200 bowlers were Joe Miller, 206; D. Graun, 207 and E. Walz, 205.

In the point columns, St. George No. 2 picked up 5 points, so did H.R.A. No. 1 while Immaculate No. 2 and St. John won 4 each.

Corpus Christi took 3 points from H.R.A. St. Anne and St. George won a point apiece. H.R.A. No. 2 and Immaculate No. 1 were shut out.

St. Boniface No. 1 and No. 2 will roll last Friday nights games on a Sunday afternoon in the near future. The teams could not miss the Aquinas-Fork Union game.
