

Card Party On Oct. 18 By Good Shepherd Guild

The Good Shepherd Guild's Fall Card Party will be held on Friday evening, Oct. 18, in St. John Evangelist Hall on Broadway.

Choir Film Set

The members of the choir of the Good Shepherd Guild are rendering a concert which will be filmed for the first time next spring.

William Janssen, widely known as the Janassen Symphony Orchestra of Los Angeles, is the idea of the movie after hearing of the success that has marked the work of the choir during the last year.

Collaborating with Mr. Janssen in making the film will be Allan Woodruff, one of Hollywood's top-flight color cameramen. The color and surround sound of the picture is being arranged by the music of the choir.

Laurel and Hardy slated for the next of the comedy to appear in the current series at the Dryden Theatre. This Saturday, October 13, and Sunday, October 14, at 3:30 p.m. Oliver Hardy will be seen in an early comedy in which Stan Laurel also appeared before the two worked together as a team.

GROUP ACTIVITIES PLANNED

LEADERS of the Good Shepherd Guild on left are going over names to invite to the Fall Card Party at St. John the Evangelist Hall, Oct. 18. They are Mrs. Walter C. Groth, chairman, and Mrs. Harold W.
