Pastor Commends Retreat At Bath Hospital

Rosary Response Brings Out 600 Veterans Bath—Approximately 600 veterans made a special retreat conducted by the Very Rev. Augustine J. Alyward, C.S.S.R., rector of the Notre Dame Diocesan Retreat House in Rochester for all the Catholic veterans and disabled ex-servicemen at the U. S. Veterans Administration Center from Oct. 7 to 10.

Father Alyward is national moderator of the Laymen's Retreat Movement.

SENIOR CATHOLIC Chaplain at the Facility, the Rev. Arthur A. LeMay, a veteran chaplain of World War I arranged the retreat. He and the Rev. Ralph Neagle, also a veteran chaplain with Service in the South Pacific during world war II, who worked hard to make the retreat a success expressed appreciation for the large turnout.

The Catholic Chapel of the Immaculate Conception was too small to accommodate the men. Father LeMay arranged to use the large service chapel on the post. This was filled every evening for the 7 p.m. service and every morning at the 6:00 a.m. Mass. A second Mass was offered at 7:10 a.m. and Confessions were heard every afternoon and evening.

Father Neagle arranged all the services in the hospital chapel. Mass was celebrated there at 7:30 a.m. and a retreat talk was given by Father Alyward at 11:15 a.m.

MANY OF THE disabled veterans made a special effort to get to the chapel, those who could walk, wheeled their less fortunate comrades.

Col. John I. Spreckelmeyer who is in charge of the U.S. Facility at Bath and Mrs. Spreckelmeyer were present at morning and evening services.

"His splendid courtesy and fine example greatly pleased all," Father Alyward reported after the retreat. "The Protestant Chaplain was very kind in arranging the hours for his service so that the Catholic veterans could make their retreat. An admirable spirit of good will was shown by everyone on the post. The retreat proved itself a great morale builder for the men, and a source of great spiritual consolation, the chaplain reported. Nearly 1200 Holy Communions were distributed. The veterans expressed gratitude to Colonel Spreckelmeyer and to their chaplains for all that was done for them.

Father Neagle arranged all the services in the hospital chapel. Mass was celebrated there at 7:30 a.m. and a retreat talk was given by Father Alyward at 11:15 a.m.
