WHAT'S DOING AT THE DALYS'

First Step to a Merry Christmas
By MARY TIMLEY DALY

"What a month!" I was thinking as I stared unseeing out the bus window while Markie and Mary chattered in the seat behind. There were the two winter coats we were on our way to buy, insurance premium due, the chairs that need reupholstering, the oil bill, and the daily upward spiraling of food and clothing that makes the budget shrink like a $10 suit in the rain.

"See what?" I asked, irritated at the interruption of my melancholy litany of worries. "Nothing to see but a mail truck." "No, but the sign," Markie read it aloud: "MAIL OVERSEAS CHRISTMAS PACKAGES NOW—Oct. 15—Nov. 15."

"That means we gotta get these packages out right away," Mary said. "Takes a long time to get to Germany. And let's make this the nicest one ever." "O. K.," I agreed. "But we can't afford much. You and Margie sit down and plan what we can send—and remember the budget."

ALL THE rest of the way downtown I heard eager planning in the seat behind. Somehow it was hard to get back into that self-satisfying attitude I'd been following in. I'd remember a phrase from one of Ilae's letters: "I cannot tell you enough thank you for the warm
