'In God We Trust' Plaques Urged In Public Schools

wif's determined 18-months campaign which resulted in placing the motto on U.S. coins "In God We Trust"-In her home community's public schools has led the Christophers to faunch a campaign urging others to imitate her example.

"If one woman could put 'In God We Trust' im 18 schools, think of the possibilities if 100,000 other Americans would each works as hard to put it in just one School," the organization directed by the Rev. James Keller, M.M., said

New York - (NC)-A house; in anymounding the campaign. "It might be the turning point in offsetting the ceaseless of forts of those who are striving to change the United States from This Nation Under God' to This Nation Without God."

The Christopher News Notes, which have 400,000 readers, recalled the story of Mrs. Catherine B. Cleary, Stamford (Conr.) mother, who succeeded in having plaques with the "In God We Trust" motto erectet in Stamford schools after a long fight against apathy, inertia and hostility.
