Loyalty to Nation Urged By Pastor

Auburn—The Catholic Action League of St. Alphonsus Church held its regular monthly meeting Oct. 29 in the new school hall with Mrs. Louis Moran, secretary, in charge. A pot luck supper was served to approximately 60 members. After a short business meeting, the Rev. John Nocco, pastor of St. Francis Church, spoke on loyalty of American Catholics to their country and their government. Later, the Rev. Robert Mung, spiritual director, read in part the Pope's recent encyclical on the Rosary. The evening's program was closed with the recitation of the Living Rosary. Members participating gathered around an appropriate altar, designed by Miss Agnes Nolan and dedicated to Our Lady of the Rosary. Arrangements for the meeting were made by Mrs. Harold Hooper, assisted by the following committee: Mrs. Louise Adams, Mrs. Edward Anderson, Mrs. Therese Anderson, Miss Grace Buhler, Miss Dorothy Evans, Miss Helen Brogan, Miss Rose Purcell, and Mrs. Theodora Smith. Mrs. Clarence McDonald was named chairman of the November meeting.
