New Swim Program Marks Opening of CYA Season

Winter program of the Columbus Youth Association is now in full swing. Many innovations in programming have been made and the reaction of the members is most satisfactory.

The new swim program for boys and girls is one example of changes made. Three of classes have been changed and standard tests of progression have been put in practice so that the boys and girls obtain a continuous program of instruction designed to fit the program the child is in.

General membership hours are: Gym, 8 to 10 p.m.; Swim, 4 to 6 p.m.

Another new part of the CYA is a Father and Son Swim hour on Saturday afternoons from 2 to 3 p.m. This program will start Nov. 10 and continue each Saturday afternoon. This program is open to all members and friends of the CYA.

The girls haven't been forgotten. On that day and on future holidays there will be an hour set aside for a mother and daughter swim period. The period starts at 2 p.m. on Nov. 23.

Boy Swimmers Program: Monday Guppies (Beginning Swimmers) 4 to 4:45 p.m.; Wednesday Minnows (Beginners) 4 to 4:30 p.m.; Saturday Sharks (Intermediate) 4:30 to 5 p.m.; Whales (Advanced) 5 to 5:30 p.m.

High School Hours for boys are: Monday and Wednesday 5:30 to 8 p.m.; Saturday 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.; Sunday 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. closing.
