KC Join Blood Donation Drive Of Ithaca Groups

Ithaca — Members of Ithaca Council, Knights of Columbus were fourth in the blood donation drive sponsored by Ithaca Interfraternal Council which resulted in a record-breaking contribution of 152 pints.

The donation was the largest since Tompkins County became part of the Syracuse Regional Blood Bank in February, 1950.

The Ithaca Knights among 13 organizations in the Interfraternal Council had 14 members report for donations.

OFFICERS participating were Grand Knight Herbert F. Spencer; Deputy Grand Knight Russell T. Fenton; Chancellor Peter Pisch; Treasurer Lawrence Flynn; Inside Guard T. J. Walsh and Past Grand Knights Francis Egan, George Kleeman and Matthew Herson.

"It was a fine job of Procurement done by the Interfraternal Council," Mrs. Gladys Nagelsky, Red Cross blood procurement chairman said. "It was also a good job of screening as only 22 had to be rejected this time."

The blood donations were sent directly to Korea.

Dome Of Buenos Aires Church Falls
Buenos Aires — (RNS) — Two persons were killed and 21 injured when the dome of a Roman Catholic church here collapsed during Sunday Mass. The tragedy occurred in the church of San Juan Evangelista, located in a workers residential district.

Father Alfonso Tavan had just finished preaching his sermon when he observed the dome begin to bulge inward. He requested the congregation to leave as quickly as possible. However, the surprised worshippers had only begun to leave the dome when about 200 square yards of the ceiling crashed down.
