Father Turner Tells Corning DCCW Of Lourdes

Corning — The Rev. Francis [illegible], pastor of St. Catherine's Church, Addison, was guest speaker at the November "First Thursday" luncheon held at the Corning Recreation Hotel by Corning Deanery, National Council of Catholic Women.

Introduced by the Rev. Daniel A. Regan, assistant pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Church, who is moderator of the organization, Father Turner told of his trip through France and Italy early this year where he visited many of the famous Catholic shrines.

REFERRING TO the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes in Southern France, which especially impressed him, Father Turner said, "The lesson to be learned from Lourdes is not so much from those who have been cured there but rather from the countless pilgrims whose afflictions have not been healed and whose prayers seemingly have not been answered but who return home with a peace of mind and patiently resign themselves to the will of God."

The shrine, Father Turner said, which is visited annually by people of all faiths, has a record of many miraculous cures. He estimated that eight or nine thousand persons were there at the time of his visit.

Miss Madeline Stenger was general chairman for the Saturday event. She was assisted by Mesdames Norman Murray, John Brady, Edith Griffin, James Ward and Miss Mary Hart. A special shrine to Our Lady was arranged by Mrs. Ward. Miss Barbara Wilcox served as accompanist.

The next luncheon is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 8, the Feast of the Immaculate Conception and will be in charge of the women of St. Vincent de Paul's Church.

Organized For 'Worker-Priests

Rome — (RNS) — A special seminary for the education of so-called worker-priests has been organized in the Bologna Roman Catholic Arch-diocese with the official approval of His Eminence Giovanni Battista Cardinal Nasalli-Rocca, Archbishop of Bologna.

The seminary will be conducted by the National Institute for Religious and Moral Assistance to Workers. This group is made up of priests who carry on a spiritual apostolate among workers in the same manner as do those belonging to the well-known Mission de Paris in France.

Cardinal Nasalli-Rocca announced in a decree that the new seminary would receive pupils from other Italian dioceses as well as from Bologna. It will be conducted along the lines of regular diocesan seminaries, but will provide special courses in sociology, political economy, sociology and other subjects.

TO MAKE AN ADVENT WREATH

One of the practices common in the preparation for Christmas is the Advent Wreath.

Easily prepared the wreath resembles a large Christmas wreath made of pine or cedar branches. A simple base for winding a wreath is made by twisting a wire coat hanger into a circular shape and then wiring on the greens.

Suspend it by four purple ribbons so that four candles can be placed around it evenly or it may be made to lie on a table top with the candles arranged at equal intervals and tied with purple ribbon.

It is customary to light the wreath before the evening meal and allow it to burn during the evening hours.

Episcopal Bishop Cautions Flock

Detroit — (NC) — Honesty, truthfulness and kindness in any discussion of the naming of a United States Ambassador to the Vatican were called for by Bishop Richard S. Emrich, Episcopal Bishop of Michigan, in a letter to members of his diocese.

"If we are kind, avoid careless words and maintain a careful regard for the truth," the Bishop writes, "there is no reason why in mature debate our unity should not be deepened."

The Bishop told the members of his diocese that "at the gate of Heaven St. Peter will not be concerned with our attitude toward an Ambassador to the Vatican, but will ask us rather, whether on earth we loved and were peacemakers."
