

Christian Mothers Group To Mark Diamond Jubilee

The Reverend Bishop Kearney will be the honored guest at the Diamond Jubilee Banquet of the Christian Mothers Society in Holy Trinity Parish Hall, Webster, on Wednesday, Nov. 28 at 7 p. m.

The society members will also be invited to a Holy Mass and Benediction on Sunday, Nov. 25 at 8:30 a. m. according to the Rev. George H. Kelly, pastor of Holy Trinity Church, Webster.

Mrs. George Finn will be toastmaster at the banquet and those in charge are: Mrs. Paul Mangano, kitchen; Mrs. George Dunbar, dining room and Mrs. Gerald Barrett, entertainment.

There will be a social hour with refreshments which now numbers 250 members was originally established by the first Bishop of Rochester on Nov. 7, 1878. Subsequently on Dec. 8, 1878, the Society was affiliated with the Archconfraternity of Christian Mothers located at the Church of Notre Dame de Ston.

One of the most sacred duties of the Christian mother, members are told, is the training and love of God according to the teaching of Jesus Christ and in the spirit of His Church.

The Society's purpose is to help her accomplish the foregoing and by united prayer to obtain the graces necessary.

United with the Blessed Mother, Christian mothers in this society enter into a communion of their hopes, cares and prayers to obtain God's choicest blessings for themselves and their children, officers said.

Present officers are: Mrs. Ivan Daly, president; Mrs. Noah Calkins, vice president; Robert Ripper, secretary and Eerton Cape, treasurer.

Cardinal Honored On Anniversary

(CALLING DETROIT "the ever-blooming city of opportunity, the Mecca of the workingmen," in its long history."

"Your Eminence, Cardinal Mooney," the Bishop continued, "On this happy day, your priests religious and faithful salute you their leader, and pray most fervently to God that He continue to keep you in this charge for many years to come. And in their prayers of thanksgiving to God for your continued welfare and work, they are joined by the most imposing assemblage of Cardinals, Archbishops, Bishops and priests in Detroit's 250 years of Catholic life."

The ceremonies attending the consecration of the impressive Cathedral began Friday evening, when Bishop Allen J. Babcock, Auxiliary of Detroit, and assisting clergy prepared and venerated the relics of saints that were to be placed in the Cathedral's high altar. Priests main taking a vigil venerated these holy mementoes of martyrs throughout the night.

At 6 o'clock Saturday morning, Bishop Babcock, who is pastor of the Cathedral, together with the priests assisting him, began a four-hour ritual of consecration that is among the most colorful ceremonies in the liturgy of the Church.

At 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning there began the procession of priests, Bishops, Archbishops and Cardinals. The procession wound its way into the Cathedral, "stripped and empty" in keeping with Canon Law, and Cardinal Mooney, accompanied by his assisting deacons and the deacon and the sub-deacon of the Mass, proceeded to the high altar. There the Cardinal offered his Mass of Thanksgiving—for the completion of the Cathedral and for his quarter of a century in the episcopate.

Four prelates who studied as seminarians under His Eminence Edward Cardinal Mooney, Archbishop of Detroit, marched in the colorful episcopal processions at ceremonies commemorating the silver jubilee of the Cardinal's consecration and the solemn dedication of the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament here.

They are: Archbishop Joseph P. Hurley, Bishop of St. Augustine and Regent of the Papal Nunciature at Belgrade, Yugoslavia; Bishop Michael J. Ready of Columbus; Bishop John F. Dearden of Pittsburgh, and Bishop Floyd Begin, Auxiliary of Cleveland.

Also in the procession were four who witnessed Cardinal Mooney's consecration in Rome in 1926—Archbishop Leo Binz, Coadjutor of Dubuque; Msgr. James M. McDonough of Cleveland; Msgr. Anthony J. Dean of Toledo, O., and the Rev. John M. Powers of Cleveland Heights, O.
