College Alumnae To Plan Gifts For Nuns At Selma

Auburn — Members of Auburn Chapter, Nazareth College Alumnae Association at their December meeting will collect and prepare for shipment, gifts and clothing for the mission work of the Sisters of St. Joseph at Selma, Ala.

The meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. John Donahue with Miss Agnes Nolan as co-hostess.

The Chapter held its regular monthly meeting, Tuesday, Nov 13, at the home of Mrs. Charles Cusick in Weedsport. Mrs. Thomas Vail assisted Mrs. Cusick as co-hostess.

PLANS WERE completed for the Chapter's first project of the fall and winter season, a moving baked goods sale.

A report on the recent Cana Conference held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Donnelley and conducted by the Rev. James Collins, assistant pastor of Holy Family Church, was given by Mrs. Thomas Vail.

The Chapter named Mrs. Charles Geherin as delegate to the Auburn College Women's Council, with Mrs. Thomas Vail to act as alternate.

Mrs. Andrew McLang spoke informally to the members on the progress in this area of the Cerebral Palsy movement, which aims at the establishment of a clinic in Cayuga County.

Mrs. Harold Bellner gave the treasurer's report.

Oil Painting Class

A "how to do it" demonstration of oil-painting will headline the Memorial Art Gallery's Sunday afternoon, Nov. 25, program. At 3:00 p.m., Edna Weeks Smith, instructor in the Gallery's Creative Arts Workshop will demonstrate Painting in Oil. Following the demonstration, at 4:15, the "Beginnings of History" will be shown in the Gallery theatre.

Heard At Genoa Rosary Unit Banquet

SPEAKERS at the Rosary Society of St. Hilary's Church annual banquet held at Auburn's Osborne Hotel are shown above (from left) Miss Elizabeth Bruton, treasurer for 15 years; Rev. Francis H. Turner, pastor of St. Catherine's Church, Addison, principal speaker; Rev. William D. Tobin, pastor of St. Hilary's Church and Mrs. Elwood Baylor, society's president.

Miss D. H. Bolin Named Red Cross Aide in Geneva

Geneva — Miss Dorothy H Bolin, 391 S Main St., has been appointed executive director of the Geneva chapter, American Red Cross, succeeding Miss Jane Gill, who has resigned.

Miss Bolin is now employed at radio station WGVA, where she conducts a daily broadcast "Women's Point of View." She is also engaged in bookkeeping and secretarial work at the station.

Miss Bolin is the daughter of Mrs. Thomas J Bolin, 391 S Main St., and of the late Thomas Bolin, who was with the city engineering department for many years.

A graduate of William Smith college, Miss Bolin was associated with the Little Theatre group there and had leading rolls in several college productions. She was later connected with Geneva Players.

AFTER GRADUATION from college, Miss Bolin did advertising work for J. W. Smith's Dry Goods store, and later went to Auburn, where she was in charge of "Woman's club of the Air" a radio program over station WMBO. She conducted three broadcasts daily.

During World War II, she returned to Geneva as a bookkeeper at Rogan and Johnson's store on Seneca St. She left this position to go to station WGVA.

During World War II Miss Bolin was a volunteer nurses aide for the Red Cross. She continued this work for about five years.

Miss Bolin will begin her new duties as Red Cross executive secretary Dec. 1.

Miss Gill who resigned early in September left Geneva Nov. 1. She will take over her new duties as assistant field director in a military hospital at Camp McCoy, Sparta, Wis. on Nov. 27.

Genoa Rosary Group Honors Miss Bruton For Services

Auburn — The annual banqhet of the Rosary Society of St. Hilary's Church, Genoa, was held at the Osborne Hotel in Auburn Wednesday evening, Nov. 14. Approximately 40 members and guests attended.

Mrs. Elwood Baylor, president of the Rosary Society, welcomed the members and guests and turned the meeting over to the pastor the Rev William Tobin.

FATHER TOBIN paid special tribute to Miss Elizabeth Burton who is retiring from her office as treasurer of the Society after a term of fifteen years. Acting for the Society, Father Tobin presented Miss Burton with an appropriate gift.

The Rev Charles I Sullivan a former boy of St Hilary's Parish, was greeted by Father Tobin. In response Father Sullivan gave a brief history of the Genoa parish.

Father Tobin then presented the guest of honor for the occasion, the Rev. Francis Turner, former pastor of Genoa and present pastor of St Catherine's Church, Addison.

FATHER TURNER spoke to the group about his recent European trip, illustrating his talk with moving pictures, featuring many shrines and churches especially those of France and Italy. Father Turner gave special attention in his address to Lourdes which impressed him more than any of the other holy places he visited. He also described his audience with Pope Pius XII.

Mrs Leo Nolan served as general chairman for the banquet, assisted by Mrs William Turney and Miss Jean Clare.

Officers of St Hilary's Rosary Society for the coming year are Mrs Baylor president, Miss Eva Colgan, vicepresident; Mrs Phil lip Tyrrell, secretary, and Mrs Ellen Hagin treasurer.

100 Firms Contacted By Le Moyne On Jobs

Syracuse — More than 1,000 businesses and industries, locally and nationally, will be contacted this year by Le Moyne College in an effort to place next June's graduates, according to William F Topp, college placement director.

The organizations contacted will be sent a brochure describing the various curricula, the number by majors, of seniors expected to graduate, the potentialities of the prospective graduates and the most convenient times for personnel interviewers to visit the college campus.

Last year was a most successful one from the standpoint of placing men and women of the class of 1951 said Mr Topp and it is hoped the percentage of graduates placed then will be duplicated in June 1952.

Auburn Organists Hear Gerald Conroy

Auburn — Gerald Conroy, organist for many years at St Mary's Church, spoke at the November meeting of Auburn Chapter of the American Guild of Organists which was held at the home of Mrs Leslie Bryant, dean of the chapter.

The subject of Conroy's talk was "Shepherds' Pipes." He illustrated his remarks by playing selections on the recorder an antique type of flute which is gradually becoming more popular in the modern musical world.

Conroy was accompanied on the piano by Mrs Bryant.

Lay Fraternity To Hear Dr. Connell

Rev Dr Maynard A Connell, rector of St. Andrew's Seminary will continue his series of addresses for members of St Andrew's Lay Fraternity at a meeting Monday, Nov 26.

The meeting to be presided over by Merland G Hamm, president will begin at 8:15 p.m in St. William House on Buffalo Road.

Cast of 100 Sought By KC For Geneva Musical Revue

Geneva — A cast of about 100 is being recruited by the talent committee for "Holiday Escapades" to be presented by Geneva Council Knights of Columbus. The show will have a three night run, Dec 3, 4, and 5 in De Sales High school gymnasium.

Proceeds will be used for charity work of the three K of C groups. The show will be the first public entertainment in the new De Sales gym.

FIRST GENERAL meeting of the committee for the K of C. Follies was held in K of C home Tuesday. Arthur J Cowan reported that the director would arrive Wednesday to begin work on the show.

George G Hanlan, chairman of the talent committee, said today that "The Escapades will be different from most amateur productions in that it is a Broadway type of musical revue.

"It will be comprised of a series of dance routines comedy situations, skits and specialities."

Mr. Hanlon said, "We can use anyone who has some little specialty, such as vocal soloists groups of singers, dancers of all types, magicians and monologists."

PROSPECTIVE show members are being asked to attend a casting meeting in the K of C home Wednesday.

Talent chairman noted that rehearsals will be held at times convenient to all. Since each group can rehearse independently of the others, fewer rehearsals will be required. Those rehearsals will be made entertaining and will be kept as brief as possible," he said.

Michael McDonald, chairman of the ticket committee reported that his committee is now complete.

Women's committee for the show will be completed following a meeting of the K of C auxiliary.

2 Films Scheduled At Museum Sunday

Two films will be shown at Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences on Sunday Nov 25 at 2:30 p.m and again at 3:30 p.m. to which the public is invited.

The color film "Information at Work" tells the story of the Taylor Instrument Companies from its small workshop to a vast organization contributing to the health and welfare of the nation. Our American heritage is reviewed in the second film "A Day of Thanksgiving."
