Crowley, who still is in the field of football as a scout, is noted throughout the nation as one of the most capable speakers in his profession.

Among guests at the victory celebration will be Charlie Maloy, ex-Aquinas grinner whose prowess with the Holy Cross team has gained him wide national mention; Jim Ryan, former Aquinas quarterback who has spearheaded the Yale team all season; Jack Landry, former Notre Dame and Chicago Bears star, and other ex-Aquinas pigskin luminaries.

The Rev. Cyril Carter, C.S.B., Aquinas athletic director, will present the trophies and awards given annually to members of the Little Irish squad, and Harry...

(Mickey) Connolly, coach, will address the expected capacity attendance.

Tickets, priced at $1, may be obtained at the school, from members of the Aquinas Men's Club which is sponsoring the "Victory Night," or at the door on the night of the rally. The victory fete replaces the award dinner held each year heretofore.

Scout Head Honored By Auburn Unit

Auburn Richard J. Curry newly named field Scout Executive of the Cayuga County Council of the Boy Scouts of America, was honored by members...

Anthony J. Conigliua, president of the Council, introduced Mr. Curry to the members present and declared that the naming of Curry to the Scout Staff would mean "more and better Scouting" for the district.

Curry, a member of St. Mary's Church, was born in Port Byron and was graduated from the Port Byron Central School. He attended both Syracuse University and LeMoyne College. He recently completed a 45 day course for Scout executives at the Scout's National Training School, Mendham, N. J. The new Cayuga County Staff member is also affiliated with the Order of the Arrow, a camping honorary fraternal society. In addition, he has had a wide and varied background of Scouting experience.

At the dinner, honoring Mr. Curry, proficiency awards were presented to local troops, including Troop 9 of Holy Family Parish and Troop 24 of St. Aloysius Parish. Participation awards were merited by Troop 2 of St. Mary's Parish and Troop 12 of St. Alphonsus.

3 Catholic Players On All-America

Players from three Catholic universities — Holy Cross, San Francisco and Villanova, have been named to the Look magazine 1951 All America Football team by Grantland Rice and the Football Writers Association of America. The team appears in the current issue of Look.

Players from Catholic universities who were honored are: Cliff Millet, guard, Holy Cross; Ollie Maloney, sensational back from San Francisco; and Nick Liotta, guard, of Villanova.

Flag Presented Brownies

Graney's 616 High In Auburn League

Auburn Paul J. Graney regained some of his old-time form on the same alleys that he rolled 711 a few years ago and garnered a 616 total to lead the St. Aloysius Holy Name Bowling League. Paul had games of 213, 294 and 199 which joined with Joe Purino's 553 total gave Canisius a 4 to 0 victory over Georgetown and dropped that team from second to fifth place.

Notre Dame became the first team to beat the heretofore invincible Santa Clara team. The "fighting jirah" led by Bob Holmes' 874 took a 4 to 0 victory from the first place club. Frank Geno with 554 and John Terry with 507 were a great help in this upset.

H. "Champ" Jones continued his steady bowling for Santa Clara with a 543 total. John Bodnar the leadoff man for Gonzaga continued to lead his team to victory as he rolled 537 to give his team a three to one victory over Loyola. Charlie Rice helped out the victors.

Joe Spota was best for the losers.
