Hollywood In Focus

By WILLIAM H. MOORING

Investigation of Foreign Import Advised

So we cannot go forward by going backward? Well, this year's report of the National Legion of Decency proves, statistically, that the movies have gone forward, via an increase of whole some themes, until they are now as good, morally, as they were in the year 1947 to 1948.

Last year, from 1949 to 1950 that is, out of 459 feature films classified by the Legion of Decency, 103 or 22% were found to be morally objectionable in part.

The past year—or at least during the 11 months ending in November—the Legion looked at 365 feature films and found only 66, or 18%, of them morally objectionable in part. That's four percent better and about as good as the year 1947-48 when, out of 451 feature films viewed by the Legion, 82 or just over 18% were given as objectionable in part rating.

These figures, however, apply only to films made in the United States, which is almost the same as saying "made in Hollywood." Foreign made motion pictures keep on going from bad to worse and more and still more of them manage to get a release in American theaters.

DURING the previous year at least 53% of all the films brought in from abroad were either objectionable or condemnable.

One vitally interesting and significant fact, not brought out in the published press of the latest Legion of Decency report is this:

A large percentage of the objectionable foreign films and almost all of those condemned, come from France and Italy, traditionally Catholic countries.

Britain, which by reason of a common language, logically becomes the principal foreign exporter of films to our country, has sent over a relatively low percentage of morally objectionable movies. In the current list of films condemned by the Legion of Decency, we find only one recent British film, "No Orchids for Miss Blandish," which incidentally, was unanimously panned by the British critics as a disgrace to their country's film industry.

While this was going on, many of the Italian and French films which the Legion of Decency justly condemned, were lauded by the press in their countries of origin. Some were even given prizes at various film festivals held in continental Europe.

The story which lurks behind these statistics is one which every American Catholic should know.

In France and Italy, most notable transgressors against a moral cinema, the ideological conflict between the forces of Christ and anti-Christ has been more forcefully joined.

AS THE Bishops' Committee on Motion Pictures has pointed out, certain producers of foreign films ignore the Motion Picture Production Code, set up and subscribed to voluntarily, if at times a little grudgingly, by our American film producers.

Any film producer in Hollywood who snarled his fingers at the Code, would fail to get for his picture a seal assuring its full and free distribution throughout the theaters of the U. S. A.

Most of the British producers at least make an attempt to abide by the Code. Several Italian, French and other European producers have still ignored the Code and still managed to get their films into many of our American theaters. They fare even better over various American T. V. stations.

Their competitors in Hollywood and London are thus invited to wriggle and squirm their way out of full compliance, in letter and in spirit, with the ethical and moral rules which this Code lays down.

SOME foreign films flagrantly in violation of Section 305 of the Tariff Act of 1930, which prohibits importation of films that are obscene or immoral, are coming into these United States. Devious detours are sometimes made to get them in.

New One-Act Play Series Set By Catholic Theatre

The Catholic Theatre has announced a new series of one act plays which will be offered on Sunday, Dec. 9 at the auditorium of St. Mary's Nursing Home, 80 Genesee Street.

Naivety on a cold Christmas Eve. Their rustic simplicity but obvious sincerity make this a unique and touching fable of entertainment. It is said.

The Catholic Theatre is drawing attention to the fact that because this pair of plays will be available for only a two week period, interested parties may contact immediately for presentation. This can be done by calling Robert Smelt at OKness 3903-J.

The general public is invited.

Sacred Heart Radio Program Sets Immaculate Conception Novena

A novena in honor of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary will be conducted on the Sacred Heart Radio Program beginning Friday Nov. 30, and closing on the feastday, Saturday, Dec. 8.

The program may be heard by Rochester area listeners over Station WRNY (680) 10 to 7 a.m. daily, and at 8:30 a.m. on Saturday.

THE REV. John T. Callahan, assistant pastor of St. Augustin's Church, who is in charge of arrangements for the WRNY presentation, is urging listeners to make the radio novena, declared.

"In our day the Christian world looks up to Mary Immaculate prayerfully, through her intercession to save the world from the spreading cancer of secularism and the threatening destruction of atheistic Communism. During the novena it is customary for the faithful clients of Mary Immaculate to daily mention the favors they seek through her intercession, and to add the novena prayer."

TOPICS FOR the novena, which will be presented by nine Jesuit priests who are associate directors of the Sacred Heart program, are Nov. 30: The Lord Is With Thee; Dec. 1: Blessed Art Thou Among Women; Dec. 2: Blessed Is the Fruit of Thy Womb; Dec. 3: Holy Mary, Mother of God; Dec. 4: Prae for

Catholic Educators Urged To Teach Mastery of Video

Atlantic City, N. J.—(NC)—Mastering the art of communications is a prime requisite in a well-rounded education today, Dr. Franklin L. Dunham, chief of radio and television of the U. S. Office of Education, told a meeting of some 200 Catholic educators here.

Dr. Dunham said that he was not aware of any school which was not using the "small light" in the classroom that is needed to save the world.

At the same time, he is still acting through his children," Dr. Dunham said. "Witness the at the very beginning of the film. Father announced it and it came from page and television and radio news in every country this side of the Iron Curtain."

It will probably even make friends and break down barriers of its competitors. The point is, it makes it without radio, television and the press, it would take months and years to make it known."

Dr. Dunham addressed an eastern regional meeting of the college and university department of the National Catholic Educational Association.

He was here for many years with the National Broadcasting Company and the Catholic Hour, produced by the National Council of Catholic Men, was one of the programs under his supervision. He also was executive director of the National Catholic Commu-

HFHS Seniors Hailed In Play

Auburn—The senior class of Holy Family High School delighted a capacity audience in the school auditorium Monday evening, Nov. 13, with its presentation of the three act comedy, "What a Life!"—the story of the typical American youth, Henry Aldrich.

The role of Henry was portrayed by Ray Cuddy, who managed to become involved in the complicated situations typical of the adolescence of Henry.

Margene Ferguson was seen as Henry's girlfriend, Barbara. The part of the "villain," persecuted by Henry's enemy, was handled by Jack Gargan. The familiar role of the harassed school principal was enacted by Albert Del Monte, while the romance of one of Henry's teachers and the school secretary, were roles taken by Bob Keller and Joan Kavanaugh, respectively.

In other roles were: Bill Thomas, Donnelly; Mr. Vondito, Frank Muller; Mrs. Aldrich, Beverly Twomey; Mr. Patterson, David Farrell; Miss Pike, Mary Ward; Miss Eggleston, Peggy Boyle; Miss Johnson, Mary Ann Murphy; Gerie, Joan Walker; Miss Wheeler, Susanne Vollmar; Mary Deeter, Ellen Duffy; Mr. Ferguson, Thomas Murphy.
