State Educators To Confer At Nazareth College

The annual meeting of the Conference of Catholic Colleges and Universities of the State of New York will be held in Rochester next Wednesday (Dec. 5) at Nazareth College.

Motherhouse between Crispin Street and Rowland Ave. in Philadelphia, Sisters here have been informed.

Blessing the ground for the building was the Very Rev. Thomas O'Keefe, custodian general of the Missionary Servants of the Most Holy Trinity, companion community to the Sisters. Both communities were founded by the Very Rev. Thomas A. Judge, C.M. in whose memory the Sisters' Chapel is being erected.

PLANS PROVIDE for a building in the form of a cross with the Father Judge Memorial Chapel given prominence at the front and forming one of the arms. A public entrance will face Holly Street and will accommodate approximately 400 persons. Built of brick and limestone trim the structure will be entirely fireproof and of permanent and durable materials to eliminate expensive maintenance.

The Trinitarian Sisters as they are better known came to the Diocese of Rochester on the request of the Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Goffel in 1920. The Sisters have three Convents in this diocese and work in several parishes. The Convents are: Christ the King Missionary Convent, 82 Prince St. serving Annunciation, Mt. Carmel, Holy Rosary and St. Patrick's parishes; Rochester; Blessed Trinity Missionary Convent, Lyons; and Blessed Trinity Missionary Convent, Auburn.

THE SISTERS assist the priest with religious instruction classes for children from the public schools on weekdays and with Sunday School in some parishes. They conduct Religion Vacation Schools during the summer months.

The Trinitarians constantly visit homes to urge attendance at Mass, Confession and Sunday School and seek to keep up to date census in the parishes where the Sisters work. These missionary Sisters depend upon the assistance of devout and zealous lay people whom they organize into apostolic groups and train for the remedial work so necessary to prevent further falling away especially by the children.

THE MORNING session of the Conference will feature an address by His Excellency Bishop Kearney of Rochester, and a report of the Legislative Committee by the Very Rev. Mark Kennedy, O.F.M., president of Siena College, Albany.

THE AFTERNOON session of the Conference will give a talk, Bishop Scully's address will be followed by a report of the Conference President, Father Schiavelli, and a discussion led by Sister M. Geraldine, S.S.J., of Nazareth College, on "State Scholarships and State Scholarship Examinations."

Mr. Frederick G. Hochwalt, NCEA secretary general said that details for the convention were mapped out at planning meetings in Chicago and Baltimore. The organization's executive board and executive committee under the direction of Archbishop Keough, Association president. All of the convention business sessions will be held in the Kansas City Municipal Auditorium.
