Can It Be

By J. BURNETT
Can it be that man's forgotten
How to walk the Godly way,
How to go to church on Sunday,
How to kneel a while and pray

Can it be that man's forgotten
How to lend a helping hand,
How to sing and pray together,
How to smile how to stand.

It can't be he's forgotten,
How to say a prayer, or two
It's just that he's so busy,
There's so many things to do.

It can't be he's forgotten
It's merely slipped his mind,
And just a little help from you,
Will help a man to find

That every little prayer that's said,
Goes straight to Heaven's door
And when the prayers are answered
We'll have the peace we're searching for.

Pray the Rosary

Liberals Back Catholic Claim To School Aid

Vancouver, B. C. (RNS) — Support of Roman Catholic efforts to gain government aid for parochial schools was voiced in a resolution adopted by the Young Liberal Association of Canada at its national convention here.

The resolution urged each of the Canadian provinces to recognize minority rights in regard to education and to preserve them if they exist. It said that Canada is a signatory to the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights, which gives parents a prior right to choose the kind of education that shall be given their children.

An attempt to table the resolution led by J. J. Proudfoot president of the British Columbia Young Liberal Association, was voted down.

The convention's action came shortly after the British Columbia Catholic Education Association had challenged the major political parties to state their position on the separate school issue or face organized opposition at the polls.
